

THE PLYMOUTH CHAPTER OF THE PEO Sisterhood recently gave a tea in honor of one of its members, Mrs. Joyce Foust, new president of the Michigan P.E.O. Representatives of chapters all over the state were on hand. The philanthropic organization, which keeps secret the meaning of its initials, supports Cotley College in Missouri and gives many scholarship loans and grants. From left: Mrs. Foust of Plymouth; Mrs. Neva Bennett, who came from St. Joseph for the occasion; and Mrs. Louise Havlik of Livonia, president of the Plymouth chapter. Redford Club Meets Nov. 14

Members of International Toastmistress Clubs will participate in a workshop on "Speech Situations - How to Handle Them" on Tuesday, Nov. 14. They will meet at 1 p.m. in the People's Federal Savings and Loan Bank conference room, Joy and Beech Daily, Redford Township. The meeting is being sponsored by the Redford club.

Mrs. A. E. Slagk will conduct the workshop. Mrs. Frank Marshall and Mrs. Earl Philip will assist her. Mrs. John Ralston will also give a talk. Guests are welcome and membership applications are being accepted.

Sorority Will Hear Speaker

A speaker from the Plymouth State Home Half-Way House will be a guest at this month's meeting of the Western Wayne County Chapter of Alpha Xi of Delta sorority.

It will be held at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 14, in the home of Fran Lang, 47555 Powell, Plymouth. Dessert will be served.

Plymouth State Home is the group's local philanthropic project. All alumnae in the area are invited to attend. Jeanette Hopkins, 42485 Roberta, Plymouth, and Betty Hazen, 22548 Nottingham, Birmingham, are taking reservations.

Hadassah Sets Education Day

The Metropolitan Detroit chapter of Hadassah will sponsor Education Day in the Jewish Community Center on Meyers Road in Detroit Tuesday, Nov. 14.

The day will be part of the 21st annual Jewish Book Fair the week of Nov. 12 to 18. Writers to be featured in programs in the Aaron DeJoy auditorium are Hugh Nissenson, who wrote "Reign of Peace" and a collection of short stories, and Martin Gray, whose book, "For Those I Loved" is the main December selection of the Book of the Month Club. The day's activities begin at 9:45 a.m. Reservations for a $3 luncheon may be made by calling the center.

SA Bazaar

The Ladies Home League of the Salvation Army is holding a bazaar from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 11, in the church basement, 290 Fairground, Plymouth. Baked goods and hand-sewn items and embroidery will be featured.

Exchange Students To Visit

Exchange students from four different countries will be guests of the Rosedale Gardens branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association at its annual international tea and guest day Tuesday, Nov. 14.

The 1 p.m. tea will be held in the Rosedale Gardens Clubhouse, 9611 Hubbard, Livonia.

Members are asked to bring guests, and any others interested in the group are invited. The high school visitors are living with local families and studying in Livonia this year under the American Field Service program.

Malu Verdi of Brazil and Chaoyod Bunyagid of Thailand will be introduced by Mrs. Donald Friedrichs, in charge of AFS students at Bentley High School. Mrs. Harvey Moelke, Stevenson High exchange student head, will introduce Regina Lichter of Belgium and Markku Rajamini of Finland.

Mrs. James Lynch is international cooperation chairman and in charge of the program. Tea hostesses will be Mrs. Rollin Balsley, Mrs. Paul Harsha and Mrs. George Schultz.

Parenthood To Be Topic

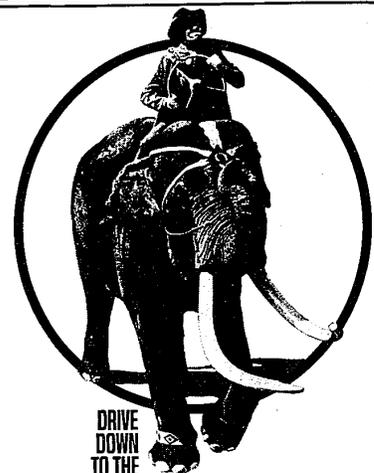

The Plymouth Childbirth Education Association is sponsoring a discussion on the pleasures and problems of parenthood at 8 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 15, in Plymouth-Salem High School.

The discussion will center on infant care and parental adjustment. There will be a bath demonstration, and three couples who recently became parents will discuss their experiences.
