

FOCUS:

Suburbia

Stereo/Hi-Fi

Observer Newspapers • November 25-26, 1972
Publishers of: The Farmington Enterprise & Observer, Garden City Observer,
Livonia Observer, Plymouth Mail & Observer, Redford Observer,
Scuthfield News & Observer, and Westland Observer

All the art, skill and science of the composer, the artist and the engineer are concentrated in the tiny undulating groove of the modern phonograph record. Here, the essence of all the music that has ever been created is preserved.

It is a miracle of modern technology that has made possible the recording of music in such a way that it can be reproduced with such fidelity. The result is a sound that is so realistic that it is almost indistinguishable from the original performance.

