

Madonna Plans Fall Open House

Prospective students of Madonna college — both women and men — and their parents and counselors are invited to attend the college's annual fall open house from 1:30 to 4 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 10. It will be held in the science lecture hall on the campus at 36600 Schoolcraft, Livonia.

Sister Mary Danatha, Madonna president, and Sister Mary Lauriana, academic dean, will tell visitors about admission requirements, programs and majors and possibilities of financial aid.

Pat Orzel, president of the Madonna student congress, then will preside over a panel of students who will discuss college environment, social life and benefits of commuting or living on the campus.

Campus tours and refreshments will follow the presentation.

Those interested may call Pamela Petoskey, admissions director, at the college.

Sesanerios Celebrate

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sesanerio of Redford Township celebrated their golden wedding anniversary by Nannini, of Redford Township, sang the "Ave Maria."

Mr. and Mrs. Sesanerio also have one son, Anthony Sesanerio of Dearborn Heights. They have six grandchildren in all, the others are Toni Sesanerio and Therese Nannini.

The couple are former residents of Iron Mountain, where they were married in immaculate Conception Church on Nov. 11, 1922.

DAVE HOUSTON of Westland and his son Greg tried an unusual bit of painting activity during a recent Fathers' Day in the Wayne Children's Nursery. The cooperative nursery, which meets in the Warrenwoods Wesleyan Church, 6615 Venoy, is planning several opportunities this year for fathers of the pre-schoolers to participate in the program.
