

College Ensembles To Play

THE GIRL SCOUTS of Garden City are sponsoring a production of the children's play "Rumpelstiltskin" in the O'Leary Performing Arts Auditorium, Middle Belt Road, south of Warren. "Rumpelstiltskin" will spin straw into gold at 11 a.m. and 1 and 3 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 16. The players are from the Henry K. Martin Children's Theater. Tickets are 75 cents each. They may be ordered from Mrs. Mary Markowicz, 32143 Block Road, Garden City. Any remaining will be sold at the door. Checks should be made payable to the Henry K. Martin Players.

An interesting variety of holiday and non-holiday music will be heard in a program of instrumental music at Schoolcraft College Friday, Dec. 15.

Five of the college's musical ensembles will be featured. They are the wind ensemble, a string trio, a percussion ensemble, a French horn ensemble and a brass quintet. All players are students at the college.

THE CONCERT will begin at 8 p.m. in the upper Waterman Campus Center, 18600 Haggerty, Livonia. There is no admission charge. Under the direction of Richard T. Saunders, the wind ensemble will perform a contemporary piece for wind and percussion instruments by W. Francis McBeth. Entitled "Divergent," it is a selection which explores the great variety of tone colors and rhythmic possibilities displayed by the modern wind and percussion instruments. The ensemble will also play several popular Christmas selections.

THE TRIO will play a work by Dvorak. The percussion group will play "Susquehanna," by Harr; "Monticello," by Leifer; and "Parade," by Gould. The French horn ensemble will play "Trio" by Duvernoy, and the brass quintet will play "Intrada" by Pezet and "Christmas Service" by McGregor.

This will be the second public performance this season by the wind ensemble. The first was an impromptu concert of march music, given during the football season.

Duns Scotus Hosts Concerts

In a continuing fight against inflation, "Bach for a Buck" will again be presented during the holiday season at Duns Scotus College, Nine Mile and Evergreen, Southfield.

Concerts will take place at 8:30 p.m., Dec. 29 and 30, in the college's beautiful Italian gothic chapel. They are sponsored by the college and the Chamber Music Society of Detroit.

DETROIT SYMPHONY bass player, Raymond Benner, will bring together the Detroit area's finest young talent home for the holidays from various conservatories. Shaul Ben - Meir and Linda Snedden Smith, also of the symphony, will join with Benner and the John Dvorak Village Singers in this student professional effort.

Amusements

Tickets are available at the college. They will also be sold at the door, for $1.

The featured work for this year's program will be the "Magnificat." Dvorak will conduct. Soloists will be Imogene Bird, soprano; Elsie Inselman, contralto; Robert Carpenter, tenor; and Carroll Strickland, bass.

THE PROGRAM will open with the Orchestral Suite No. 3, followed by the Cello Suite in D minor, with Jerome Jelinek as soloist. Jelinek is head of the cello department at the University of Michigan and is a member of the Stanley Quartet.

Soprano Jan Albright of Overlook to Opera fame will sing an excerpt from Cantata No. 147, followed by the traditional chorale from that work, "Jesu, meine Freude."

Alma Choir Is On Tour

With the Alma College A Cappella Choir on its three-day concert tour of southeastern Michigan beginning Sunday, Dec. 10, are singers from Southfield and Farmington.

They are Jeffrey Farn, bass, son of Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Foran of Greythorne, Farmington; Ellen MacLaren, soprano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McLaren of Colony Park Drive, Farmington; Christine Washburn, alto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Washburn of Birchwood, Farmington; Janice Knapp, alto, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Knapp of Devonshire Drive, Southfield; and Richard Lenz, bass, son of Mr. and Mrs. Erich Lenz of Coral Gables, Southfield.

Sunday, the choir sings at the morning worship services in Allen Park Presbyterian Church and presents an evening concert in Northbrook Presbyterian Church, Birmingham. An assembly program at Carl Brice High School, Roseville, and an evening concert in Milford Presbyterian Church are on Monday's schedule.

On Tuesday, the choir will present assembly programs in Novi High School and in Kennedy High School, Taylor.

'Nutmacker' Gets Encore

DETROIT Because of a tremendous demand for tickets, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra has scheduled an extra performance of "The Nutcracker," by the Severo Ballet Company. The ballet will be staged twice, at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 16 as well as twice on Dec. 9.

Tickets are available at the Ford Auditorium box office.
