

Area Students

Go To CMU

FARMINGTON Three Farmington area high school students were among more than 200 students from 23 countries who participated in "Cosmos" at Central Michigan University, a program in international understanding.

The program, sponsored by the YMCA, is meant to sharpen awareness of the similarities and differences in the varying cultures of the world.

Those from Farmington participating in the program were: Kristina Troedson, 24758 Oakland, who is originally from Sweden; Colleen Wilkins, 24758 Oakland Rd.; and Mary Allmayer, 2446 Dohany Drive.

Dr. Nicholas Goncharoff, a former Russian prisoner of war and presently director of international education and world affairs of the national council of YMCA, was the special resource guest.

EAGLE SCOUTS—it's a rare day for a boy scout troop to swear in even one eagle scout, but Troop 263 in Farmington recently swore in four

Harrison Madrigal Concert Scheduled

FARMINGTON Harrison High's new madrigal singers will make their public debut when the music department presents its winter concert Thursday, Dec. 14, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium.

Other instrumental and vocal groups who will perform include the orchestra, concert choir, women's ensemble and symphony band.

The performance will include music of the season as well as portions of the Schubert "Mass in G," Handel's "The Royal Fireworks Music" and the Giannini "Symphony No. 3." Tickets are $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for students and will be available at the door.

Members of the madrigal singers, selected by audition, are: sopranos, Linda Foren, Ginny Perry, Darcy Baker and Ann Skilman; altos, Diane Davey, Annette

York Earns And Learns

Guy R. York of Farmington is among 22 engineering students taking part in the earning-while-learning cooperative education program of Michigan Technological University's College of Engineering.

The program enables students to gain insight into their vocational choices so they can more readily decide where their actual job interests lie.

Dean James A. Kent said, York, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. York, 25088 Castle-field, is a sophomore majoring in civil engineering. He is spending the winter quarter on the job with McClurg and Associates, Inc., Bloomfield Hills.

OCC Party Set For Children

Good ol' Santa Claus will be spreading Christmas cheer for about 200 underprivileged children during a party on the Orchard Ridge campus of Oakland Community College at 1 p.m. today (Saturday). The Student Activities Board is sponsoring its second annual Christmas party for children's play put on by students from Cass Tech High School, and students from Orchard Ridge's theater guild.

Accompanying Santa (alias student Mike Sachki) will be several elves, Charlie Brown and Linus.

Santa will give each child, ranging in age from five to 10, a gift before the party ends at 5 p.m.

Gould, a Southfield resident, said that any money left after the transportation costs are paid will be split up between the Mother Waddies Mission and Sarah Fisher Home.
