

MR. AND MRS. JAMES K. WILKINSON. Livonia residents for 33 years and now living in the Baptist Manor in Farmington, will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary with an open house in the First Baptist Church of Livonia, 17725 Inkster, at 7 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 10. The Wilkinsons have four children, 12 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Engagements Announced

LINDA NELSON

LINDA HILL

SALLY LEIGHTON

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Nelson of Somerville, N.J., formerly of Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda Sue, to William H. Hardgrove III of Frenchtown, N.J. The bride-elect attended North Farmington High School and graduated from Bridgewater-Raritan High School West and the Bryman School of East Brunswick, N.J. She is employed by Chubb & Son, Inc., of Short Hills, N.J. Her fiancé, a graduate of Delaware Valley Regional School, is associated with Frenchtown Realty Co. No wedding date has been set.

Mr. and Mrs. Voyle Hill of Livonia announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda, to George Nale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nale of Detroit. They plan an August wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Richardson of West Bloomfield announce the engagement of their daughter, Bonnie, to Brian M. Papez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Papez, also of West Bloomfield. The prospective bridegroom is a graduate of EMU and is employed by North Farmington High School. An Aug. 11 wedding is planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Leighton of Ann Arbor announce the engagement of their daughter, Sally Lin, to Thomas G. Newth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newth of Williams Drive, Livonia. The bride-elect is a graduate of Albion College, where she affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority and was named to Mortar Board. She is working toward a master's degree at the University of Michigan and teaching in the Adams elementary school in Ypsilanti. Her fiancé graduated from Bentley High School and Eastern Michigan University and served in the U.S. Army. He is working on a master's in business administration at EMU and is employed by Burroughs Corp. in Plymouth. They plan to be married June 30.

Pictures for wedding and engagement announcements must be mailed or brought to the office of The Observer Newspapers, 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia, 48150. Forms to supply the necessary information also may be obtained there. Pictures should be black and white and clear, and wedding pictures must be of the bride alone.

Our picture-printing charge is $2.50 for engagement and one-column wedding pictures, and $5 for two-column wedding pictures. Checks should be made out to The Observer Newspapers.

Pictures can be mailed back only if an addressed and stamped envelope is supplied. They also may be picked up at the office at 36251 Schoolcraft after publication.

There is no charge for a wedding or engagement announcement with no picture.

It is not possible to inform you exactly when the announcement will be printed.

DONNA HEMENWAY

Mr. and Mrs. Bill J. Hemenway of Redford Township announce the engagement of their daughter, Donna Marie, to Arthur William Finney III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Finney Jr. of Detroit. The bride-elect is a 1971 graduate of Harper Hospital School of Nursing. Her fiancé is an apprentice power lineman. A July 13 wedding date is set.

Spotlight on Women

Panel Will Note Women's Life In 4 Countries

Four women, each from a different foreign country, will talk about "The Sisterhood of Women" in a panel discussion in the social hall of St. Paul Presbyterian Church, 23475 Five Mile, Livonia at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 12.

Their commentary on women's life styles in Taiwan, the Philippines, Finland and Japan will be the program for the December meeting of the Livonia branch of the American Association of University Women.

Participating will be Mei Ling Chow of Taipei, Taiwan, Republic of China, who now makes her home in Livonia, and Amy S. Santos, former elementary teacher from the Philippines now at the University of Michigan doing graduate work in teaching emotionally disturbed children.

The others are Mya Kaldjian of Finland and Taeshih Yang of Formosa and Japan. Both live in Ann Arbor and have husbands affiliated with the University of Michigan.

The panelists, in addition to telling about woman's role in their own countries, will comment on the adjustments they have had to make to live happily in this nation.

Mrs. Joan Sudman, international relations chairman for the Livonia branch AAUW, is in charge of program arrangements. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Marge Deacon, Mrs. Judy Howton and Mrs. Carolyn Ross.

Women who are college graduates are invited to join the branch. Information is available from Mrs. Irene Cameron, 15580 Gary Lane, Livonia.

Rosedale Club To Hold Tea

Members of the Rosedale Gardens Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association will hold their annual Christmas tea at 1 p.m., Tuesday, Dec. 12, in the clubhouse, 9611 Hubbard, Livonia.

The Grant School fourth grade class, featuring 24 voices, will present a Christmas program.

Mrs. Donald McLean, Mrs. Leslie Daniel and Mrs. A. T. M. Petersen will be tea hostesses.

Rengerts Note 60th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William Rengert, who lived in Plymouth from 1912 to 1940, marked their 60th wedding anniversary with a reception in their Houghton Lake home recently. Among the relatives on hand were their only daughter, Mrs. Joe (Jewell) Casselman of Clayton, N.Y. and their granddaughter, Mrs. Don Painter of Westland.

Some 200 guests came from Florida and from Livonia, Plymouth, Novi, Ypsilanti, Detroit, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Flint and Romulus.

William and Mary Rengert were married Nov. 20, 1912, in Detroit. Mr. Rengert was a salesman for a men's tailoring firm in Livonia for years. The couple moved to their Houghton Lake home in 1940.

They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a party in the Dunning Hough Library in Plymouth.

Mr. Rengert is a life member of the Plymouth Rock Lodge 47, F&AM, in Plymouth.

Delta Zetas To Meet

Holiday fun and activity will begin with a Christmas auction of homemade items for members of the Western Wayne Alumnae of Delta Zeta.

The sale will be held at 8 p.m., Thursday, Dec. 14, in the home of Mrs. Donald Schnarr, 35422 Schoolcraft, Livonia. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Bruce Jorlin of Livonia and Judy Stevens of Redford Township.

Proceeds from the sale will be given to the Navajo Indians and the Penrickton Center for Blind Children.

Members are also asked to bring clothes for a needy family and a dozen cookies for a cookie exchange.

Kappa Deltas Plan Dinner

The Detroit West Side Alumnae Association of Kappa Delta Sorority will hold its annual Christmas dinner meeting on Wednesday, Dec. 13. Any alumnae who would like to attend should call Mrs. Donald Denniston, 32745 Hunter's Pointe Drive, Farmington.

The dinner will be held in the home of Mrs. Robert Mulligan, 32300 Bingham Road, Birmingham. Several members of the association visited the State Normal School in Farmville, Va., to attend celebrations of the sorority's 75th anniversary.
