

New Medical Condo Open

FARMINGTON Florida business trust headquartered in Philadelphia. Sales agent for Quakertown Medical Arts Condominium is Thompson-Brown. Owner Charles M. Bauer, president of the Rose Company, said the project is being presented as a condominium to allow its medical profession tenants to take full advantage of the benefits provided through such ownership. The condominium incorporates ramped, electrified sidewalks for snow removal, elevators operating at half-story stops for patient convenience, 360-degree lighted, paved parking, and a private owner's lounge where doctors can relax with saunas, showers, exercise equipment, television, bar and vending equipment.

Mortgage funds have been arranged through Builder Investment Group (BIG), a
