

Exchange Housing Is Sought

Local representatives of Youth for Understanding, the nation's largest international teenage exchange program, are appealing to Clarendonville, Northville, Novi and Farmington residents to open their homes to foreign students for a six-month period beginning in January. Provided there is adequate housing, students from Brazil, Colombia, Uruguay and Argentina will arrive between Jan. 3 and 29 in local areas. The students study in high schools in these cities from January to June and then return home.

The students are financially self supporting and require only a bed and food. They range in age from 16 to 18 and do have a limited knowledge of English.

Youth for Understanding is one of three exchange programs recognized by the Department of State and stresses the importance of actual cultural contact - the day by day living with a family.

Recently, Youth for Understanding was the subject of scores of tributes by more than 60 members of Congress. The special order in the House was initiated by Congressman Marvin Esch (R-Mich). Anyone interested in housing an exchange student for six months should contact James Sullivan, 20026 St. Francis, Livonia, or Mrs. Wesley Orr, 26508 Farmington Road, Farmington.

New Psychic Classes Among OU Offerings

ROCHESTER
Oakland University's division of continuing education announces 24 new evening credit-free courses will be offered in the winter term beginning the week of Jan. 22.

New in the humanities are astrology, physical research, aesthetics, sex role differentiation, women in contemporary society, European travel, introduction to folk music, and fads, facts and fantasies about food.

In the management area are effective supervision, organizational development workshop, effective manpower utilization, affirmative action implementation, problem analysis and critical executive decisions.

New courses for medical and dental office assistants are medical insurance forms and medical office procedures.

Anatomy and physiology of the eye is the first course in a new certificate program for ophthalmic/optometric assistants.

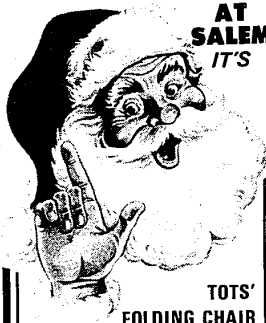

Additional new courses are fish-eye view for fishermen and jobhunting methods.

Scouters Will Be Recognized At Dinner

Thomas F. Russell, president of Federal-Mogul Corp., has been named 1973 chairman for the annual scout leaders potluck recognition dinner of the Detroit Area Council.

The event will be taking place on Saturday, Feb. 10 at Cobo Hall in Detroit.

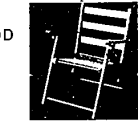

Some 5,400 adult scouters will be recognized and entertained in appreciation for their service.
