

Christmas Is Special For These Indian Kids

SANTA GAVE presents to 692 children at Custer, near Muskegon, and the youngsters enjoyed toys, lunch, candy and entertainment. This was one of several northern Michigan areas to receive Christmas presents from the Western Wayne County Conservation Assn., Observerland churches, clubs, scout, civic and business groups.

A DOLL HOUSE that looks like a suburban home is a new experience for these Custer village Indian girls. They had a Christmas party Sunday, thanks to Observerland donors.

COWBOYS NO longer have a monopoly on guitars, as this Indian boy at Custer demonstrates. Observerland retailers were major donors of toys.
