How Growing Trash Perils Area Future

the township, but many use the same Salem Township landfill site.

A special millage for pickup was defeated at he polls several years ago, despite estimates that most residents would save on their current yearly bills of approximately $50.

A special committee has been appointed to study the present and future problems of trash pickup and disposal, with Chairman Earl Oppenheimer proposing separation of glass and other recyclable materials.

With an election on cityhood coming up soon, no major changes in the near future are anticipated.

THE CITY COUNCIL will continue to work with the township and school board on many multi-phased projects that affect the entire community.

One of these projects will be in the area of social youth services agencies, providing such services as youth employment, drug counseling and case work studies.

This inter-community effort will attempt to eliminate duplication of services, and provide increased coordination between agencies rendering services to the youth of this community.

In conclusion, it would appear that 1973 will be a productive and progressive year for the City of Farmington. The city should experience continuing growth along with improved services in many areas of vital concern to the community.

Apartment Holds Party

FARMINGTON Sixty-five and sixty-odd, some in wheelchairs, were entertained at an old fashioned Christmas party Monday at Hunters Ridge, a guarded, walled estate of rental homes on 14 Mile Road.

The 20 housewives who dreamed up the idea of hosting needy children at a party served homemade gingerbread men and provided entertainment. Santa dispersed gifts.

Dean's List

FARMINGTON Susan Roach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Roach, 28781 Aranel, Farmington, has been named to the dean's list at Denison University, Granville, Ohio, for the 1971-72 academic year. She is a senior.
