Zebrowski Gets Contract

FARMINGTON first phase of the development, including a 70-story circular glass-walled hotel, contractor, was awarded the bid to demolish 14 of the 18 structures on the planned 32-acre urban waterfront development in downtown Detroit.

Selection of Zebrowski was announced by Wayne S. Doran, president of Ford Motor Land Development Corp., Dearborn, which has exercised its option to purchase the land for the development. Demolition of the buildings is proceeding with completion scheduled for early 1973.

PUBLIC CEREMONIES marking the demolition of the old Packard Motor Car Detroit branch building included participation by Henry Ford II, board chairman of Ford Motor Co., and Detroit Mayor Roman Gribbs.

Buildings scheduled for demolition by Zebrowski include those acquired from The Evening News Association; Grand Trunk Western Railroad Co.; International Multifoods Corp.; Ammex Warehouse Co., Inc.; and the Randolph Detroit Corp.

Construction is scheduled to start by early spring on the

Name Selected For 17-Story Hotel

SOUTHFIELD: attached, was designed by King and Lewis Architects, Inc., of Southfield.

A.J. Etkin Construction Co. of Oak Park is the contractor and Etkin - Pic Realty is the developer.

The hotel will have 400 guest rooms and suites plus commercial space for a beauty salon, barber shop, drug store, and specialty shops.

The functions building will provide kitchen facilities, banquet rooms with a capacity for 600 persons, three restaurants, and an outdoor terrace. The hotel's outdoor terrace will include a swimming pool and tennis courts.

The trail was one of the major Indian routes and led to the Detroit waterfront and Fort Pontchartrain.

SCHEDULED for completion next fall, the poured concrete shear wall structure, with a functions building.
