

Rev. Rawley Is Called To California Church

The Rev. Paul M. Rawley, son of Mrs. Roy M. Rawley of W. Ann Arbor Road, Plymouth, and the late Mr. Rawley, has been called as the minister of Lakewood Village Community Church, Long Beach, Calif.

THE REV. PAUL RAWLEY

He will administer youth programs, camps, retreats and mission efforts in Mexico, Haiti, Europe and Israel.

He will administer youth programs, camps, retreats and mission efforts in Mexico, Haiti, Europe and Israel. He will lead a group of young people on a tour of seven European countries and will conduct a work camp in Israel and Mexico.

At present, I get the money from my wife, who is in plenty. The United States.

—Maharishi Mahesh Yogi to The Times of India

One of India's major if unofficial epics—brogue hollywood—has recently reached a new pinnacle in blatant, pseudo ecclesiastical film flamboyance.

THE BOY GOD looks as if he is either a pubescent Ganesha Buddha stood up for Pop Warner football or else the world's best fed midget.

As part of a recent U.S. tour, the corpulent young guru descended upon San Francisco, "coming in the clouds, with great power and glory, on a silver steed," as an advance press release had advised.

For in addition to the usual quota of the sadly susceptible, there is the type of "do your own thing" youth who feels that his maturity and individuality can be proven only by forsaking anything remotely resembling the faith of his father.

When the Plump young Saviour of the World descends to favor the folk with assorted divine emanations from his august lips, they usually follow a familiar fakir technique: Nonsense, when spoken slowly to the gullible, can sell better even than surrealistic art.

Bethel Sets New Color Movie

"Sound of the Trumpet," a full-length feature film, will be shown at 7 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 14, in Bethel Missionary Assembly of God, 8880 Middle Belt, Livonia.

All are welcome to view the new Ken Anderson production. It is the story of a television network newscaster, an avowed agnostic, who treats in a joking manner some film taken at a Jesus festival by one of his crewmen.

His action brings on an avalanche of mail, and he decides to investigate the movement. His research takes him across this country and to Israel and confronts him with a wide array of new ideas.

The film is 85 minutes in length and in full color.

Serving As We Would Wish to be Served

Let's Talk Frankly About Dollars And Cents

Like anyone else, a funeral director has to make ends meet. He has facilities to maintain, cars to buy, salaries to provide and, of course, taxes to pay.

This means he must have a strong business sense. He must keep expenses within reason so as to keep his prices within every family's means. As we do.
