

New Service Is Offered To Musicians

SOUTHFIELD
The Chamber Musicians Register is being offered as a new service for chamber musicians in the metropolitan Detroit area by the Southfield Arts Council and the Southfield Public Library.

The directory will list the names, addresses, instrument and musical background of area musicians. It is based on the International Directory of Chamber Musicians which enables musicians to meet and play music together in principal cities throughout the world.

Amusements

group can find other musicians in the area to make up his quintette, trio or whatever.

The Chamber Musicians Register will be kept in the

Puppet Show

Cleveland's Popinjay Puppet Theater returns to the Detroit Institute of Arts Youthcenter with its production of "The Southfield Public Library where it will serve as a free clearing house for all musicians, amateur or professional, who want to get together with others interested in chamber music.

Emperor's New Clothes," at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m., Saturday, Jan. 13. For tickets, call the institute.
