

Congregation Marks 80 Years

Congregation Beth Abraham-Hillel will celebrate its 80th anniversary with a weekend of special events Jan. 26-28.

Dr. Irving L. Edgar will be the guest speaker at the sabbath program at 8:15 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Jan. 27-28, at the temple, 3000 W. Maple, West Bloomfield.

The talk will be entitled "Reminiscing About the Early Jewish Community of Detroit." The Sisterhood will serve tea at a social hour.

THE CONGREGATION will have an anniversary sabbath service at 9 a.m. Saturday. Special music will be offered by Cantor Shabtai Ackerman, associate Cantor Israel Fuchs and the synagogue choir.

Rabbi Israel I. Halpern, spiritual leader of the congregation, will speak on "Eight Decades of Judaism—Looking Ahead." A luncheon will be served afterwards.

A black-tie dinner dance will be held at 6:30 p.m., Sunday. Special guests from various sectors of the community and business will attend.

Eric Rosen and his orchestra will provide the music. The anniversary committee consists of Menasche Haar, Irvin Klar, Sigmund

EXAMINING OLD INSTRUMENTS to be used in a Jan. 21 concert in University Hills Church of Farmington are Calvin College Musician Directors John Worst, left, director of brass and woodwind ensembles; Calvin Stapert, director of old instrument ensembles, and Howard Sienk, director of vocal ensembles.

College Musicians Visit

The Collegium Musican, a group of specialized musicians from Calvin College in Grand Rapids, will present a program Sunday, Jan. 21, at 7 p.m. in University Hills Christian Reformed Church, Farmington.

The Musican is an organization of small vocal and instrumental ensembles who perform separately or in a variety of combinations.

Their repertoire includes music from the 14th to 20th centuries.

THE CONGREGATION will host the musicians at a 5 p.m. potluck supper before the performance.

Churches from Roseville, Troy and Inkster will join University Hills in presenting the Musican.

SA Seeks Funds For Quake Victims

The Salvation Army will be engaged for at least a year in helping care for the victims of the earthquake in Managua, Nicaragua, reported Dan R. Eddy.

Eddy is SA public relations director in the Texas Division and was part of a group which surveyed the needs of Managua.

The Salvation Army is accepting contributions for this work, and interested persons may send them to The Salvation Army, 601 Bagley, Detroit, 48226. They should mark the envelope "Nicaragua Relief Fund."

No one can live in Managua for at least a year, said Eddy. At least 300,000 people are homeless and there is no economic life in the city, he reported.

So far, the army has assisted 20,000 families, totaling more than 140,000 persons.

The Salvation Army will be at 9:45 a.m. and 7 p.m.

The Saturday service will feature the Masters Quartet of Carleton. It begins at 7 p.m.

Hardin has traveled through many parts of the U.S. over the past four years, holding successful evangelistic campaigns. Not only is he a forceful preacher, he also is a refined artist. He has produced three stereo gospel albums in the Nashville Sound Studios.

The Rev. Warren B. Tyler is pastor of the church.

ED HARDIN

Evangelist To Sing

Singer-evangelist Ed Hardin of Nashville, Tenn., is taking part in special services in the Plymouth Assembly of God, 4201 Ann Arbor Trail.

They begin Wednesday and will run through Jan. 21.

Sunday services will be at 9:45 a.m. and 7 p.m.

The Saturday service will feature the Masters Quartet of Carleton. It begins at 7 p.m.

Hardin has traveled through many parts of the U.S. over the past four years, holding successful evangelistic campaigns. Not only is he a forceful preacher, he also is a refined artist. He has produced three stereo gospel albums in the Nashville Sound Studios.

The Rev. Warren B. Tyler is pastor of the church.

Communication Is Topic For Council

"Communication—Is Any Listening?" is the topic for the meeting of the Archdiocese of Detroit Council of Catholic Women from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 24, in the Gabriel Richard Building, 304 Michigan, Detroit.

The speaker will be Leon

Grand River Seniors Meet

The Senior Citizens Group of Grand River Baptist Church will meet for a luncheon at 12 noon, Friday, Jan. 26, in Fellowship Hall, 3450 Six Mile.

A talk will be given on the relation of diets to the health of senior citizens, and movies will be shown of a trip to Florida's Disney World.

Reservations must be made by calling the church office. Jan. 24, 23, visitors are invited.

Farmington Society Meets

The Women's Society of Christian Service of Farmington's First United Methodist Church will hold its monthly meeting at 7 p.m. Jan. 22, in the church, 3312 Grand River.

Mrs. Joan Gieb will do a monologue from "Woman at the Well." Mrs. Gieb is a member of Clarenceville United Methodist Church.

Reservations should be made at the church. Cost of the luncheon is $1.

The Real FDR Temple Topic

"FDR—Giant or Phony?" will be the theme of the Birmingham Temple's meeting at 8 p.m. Friday, Jan. 26. Readings, music, talk and discussion will be included in the evening's look at Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Rabbi Shnei, Wise said the question would seek insight into whether the former president was "the aristocratic, patriarchal, wise and compassionate and liberal man" and "the infallible defender of freedom and democracy against the fascist beast" or whether he was, as depicted more recently, "shallow, opportunistic, callous, arrogant, indifferent to the fate of blacks and Jews."

Director To Speak

Dr. James C. Lentz, director of Homeland Ministries of World Gospel Mission, will be guest speaker in Forest Hills Missionary Church, 30623 W. 12 Mile, Farmington.

He will speak at 10:35 a.m. and at 7 p.m., Sunday, Jan. 21, in the church since Wednesday, and will give a talk tonight (Saturday) at 7 p.m.

World Gospel Mission is an interdenominational missionary organization with approximately 240 missionaries and associate missionaries working in 15 areas of the world. Its headquarters is in Marion, Ind.

From the home office, Dr. Lentz travels throughout the world in missionary evangelism. He also conducts pastors' conferences and is a popular after-dinner speaker.

Dr. Lentz was a successful pastor and evangelist for 14 years.

He had previously worked as program director and announcer for a network radio station.

years. He had previously worked as program director and announcer for a network radio station.

He will speak at 10:35 a.m. and at 7 p.m., Sunday, Jan. 21, in the church since Wednesday, and will give a talk tonight (Saturday) at 7 p.m.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

Organ Recital

DETROIT—Daniel Pritchard will present a program of organ classics, traditional music at 8 p.m., Monday, Jan. 22, in Westminster-Presbyterian Church, Hubbell at Outer Drive, The program is being sponsored by the Detroit Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

He will speak at 10:35 a.m. and at 7 p.m., Sunday, Jan. 21, in the church since Wednesday, and will give a talk tonight (Saturday) at 7 p.m.

World Gospel Mission is an interdenominational missionary organization with approximately 240 missionaries and associate missionaries working in 15 areas of the world. Its headquarters is in Marion, Ind.

From the home office, Dr. Lentz travels throughout the world in missionary evangelism. He also conducts pastors' conferences and is a popular after-dinner speaker.

Dr. Lentz was a successful pastor and evangelist for 14 years.

He had previously worked as program director and announcer for a network radio station.

He will speak at 10:35 a.m. and at 7 p.m., Sunday, Jan. 21, in the church since Wednesday, and will give a talk tonight (Saturday) at 7 p.m.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.

Also on the program will be an examination of DACCW by-laws, and the first steps to be taken for forming resolutions to be presented for action at the group's annual meeting in May.

All women in the area may attend. Those attending should bring a lunch, and coffee will be furnished.

The day will begin with a celebration of the eucharist.