Observeland bowlers are continuing to swell the ranks of the high scorers in the metropolitan area.

The latest to turn the trick was the Koepplinger team in the Wonderland Classic when it posted a 3312 series on games of 1079, 1138 and 1075.

With a 3800 series in a game, the team is a new high for the Classic with a 326.

Vito Petrucci paced the team with a 665 and was followed by Bob Hansen 682, John Cox 677, John Wilson 634 and Bert Nort 622.

The irony of the feat came in the fact that none of team members took scoring honors for the night. Mitch Cadzewski set the pace with a 719 and Rick Capafidash a 705.

STEVE ANSTANDING, who started bowling seven years ago in the junior leagues at Oak Park Lanes, is the latest to join the 300 Honor Roll in the area.

Bowling in the junior house league he started with a 204, then added the perfect game, and closed with a 177 for 681.

INDIVIDUAL scoring honors for the week in Observeland went to Frank Muggenich who showed the way in the Westland Bowl Classic with a 722.

Opening with a 243, he came back with 268 and then closed with a 211. Ed Marzka landed second, with 694, and Bob Garelli third with 690.
