

Linda Husted Is Bride

St. Mary Episcopal Church at Laguna Beach, Calif., was the setting for the Dec. 30 marriage of Linda Sue Husted, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Husted of Framing Court, Westland, and David Royhl Pender of Seattle.

The Rev. Robert Cornelison officiated for the afternoon rites, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

She wore a white satin gown with alencon lace trim and carried white roses with baby's breath and ivy.

THREE ATTENDANTS wore long red and green plaid dresses and carried red roses with pine and holly. Kay Husted of Westland was maid of honor for her sister.

MRS. DAVID ROYHL PENDER (Linda Sue Husted) and the bridesmaids were Barbara Will of Santa Monica and Mrs. Craig Campbell of Long Beach.

Four flower girls in bright red dresses also joined the wedding party. They were Brenda and Kathy Downs of Seattle and Dawn and Sherri Griffith of Huntington Beach.

Attending the bridegroom were Richard Stall of Los Angeles as best man and Daniel Crawford of San Francisco and Earl Boyd of Los Angeles as ushers.

MRS. HUSTED wore a long pink crepe dress for the ceremony and the reception in Ben Brown's Resort at Laguna Beach. The bride's brother, Jay Husted, also traveled to California for the wedding.

After a honeymoon in Carmel and Monterey, the newlyweds will live in Seattle. The new Mrs. Pender is a flight hostess with Trans World Airlines.

Her husband is a graduate of Stanford University law school and has worked as a special agent of the FBI. He now is employed as an attorney by the Federal Trade Commission.

Nuptials Are Held In St. Jude

Linda MacLake, former Livonia resident and medical technology intern at St. Mary hospital, became the bride of Donald Riddell III in an early evening ceremony Jan. 5 in St. Jude Catholic Church, Detroit.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip MacLake, now living in Ann Arbor. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Riddell Jr. of Detroit are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. Joseph James officiated.

GIVEN in marriage by her father, the bride wore a lace-trimmed gown with a sheer veil and carried red sweetheart roses, baby's breath and white carnations.

Sharon Snyder of Southfield was matron of honor. She wore a cranberry red velvet gown with white lace trim and carried a hurricane lamp with carnations, mums and baby's breath.

The bridesmaids were the bride's sister, Rebecca MacLake of Kansas City, Mo., Cindy and Pam Riddell of Detroit, sisters of the bridegroom, and Sue Mantel of Livonia.

PAUL COOMES of Detroit was best man. Ushers were Jeff Riddell of Detroit, Gary MacLake of San Francisco and Robert MacLake of Ann Arbor, brothers of the bride pair, and David Pedersen of Detroit.

For the ceremony and reception for 200 in Allard House, Harper Woods, Mrs. MacLake wore a pink boucle gown, and Mrs. Riddell's dress had a white top and black skirt.

The couple went to Vail, Colo., for their honeymoon and will live in Ferndale.

Both attended Michigan State University. The bridegroom also attended Wayne State University graduate school and is employed by Denton Construction.

D'Angelos Wed

Laurie Ann Warner and Ronald James D'Angelo were united in marriage Jan. 6 in an early evening ceremony in the First United Methodist Church of Garden City.

The Rev. Glenn E.L. Kjellberg officiated for the double-ring ceremony, and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Warner of Garden City and Mr. and Mrs. Nick D'Angelo of Turtle Creek, Pa., are the couple's parents.

THE BRIDE wore a floor-length white lace gown with scalloped neckline and hoop skirt. Her elbow-length veil fell from a flower headpiece of matching lace, and she carried white baby roses and yellow and pale orange carnations with yellow streamers.

Lindy Sue Warner, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Carole Farabough of Ypsilanti was bridesmaid and Dawn Farabough was flower girl.

All wore yellow a-line gowns with white lace trim and carried white carnations.

Harry Hamilton of Allen Park, the bridegroom's cousin, was best man and Tim Zabkiewicz was usher. Brian Warner, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

MRS. RONALD D'ANGELO (Laurie Ann Warner)

A reception for 150 guests in the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. The couple will live in Belleville.

The new Mrs. D'Angelo is a 1972 graduate of Garden City East High School. Her husband is a 1967 graduate of Turtle Creek High and served in the U.S. Army in Germany and Vietnam. He is employed by General Motors Corp. at Willow Run.

DARLENE RING

Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Ring of Joy Road, Plymouth, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, M. Darlene, to Michael V. Rorabacher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Rorabacher of Lilley Road, Plymouth.

The bride-elect is a 1971 graduate of Plymouth High School and employed by the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. Her fiancé graduated from Plymouth High in 1970 and works for Bathey Manufacturing of Plymouth. He also is a volunteer firefighter for Canton Township. The wedding date is Aug. 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. Holt of Beck Road, Plymouth, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathy Anne, to Richard Herbert Gwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Gwin of Riverside, Ill. The bride-elect is a 1972 graduate of Plymouth High School and has been active in the Michigan and Justin Morgan Horse Associations of Plymouth in 1970, 1971 and 1972. Her fiancé attended the University of Tampa and is breeder and trainer for the Gwinn Oaks Morgan Farm at Big Rock, Ill. They plan to be married Feb. 10 in the Cherry Hill Methodist Church.
