

Oakland GOP Counts Votes In Detroit-Run 17th District

By TIM RICHARD

No question about it: Denzil "Denny" Hammond of Detroit has the votes to retain chairmanship of the 17th Congressional District Republican organization, even with the suburbs that were added by redistricting.

The question is how many other offices — such as GOP State Central Committee seats and district committee members — the suburbs can bargain for.

Between last week's local conventions and the Feb. 16

state convention at Detroit, suburban delegates will be

horse trading with Hammond

and the northwest Detroiters

all very fair and friendly, though.

GOP Youth Office Could Be A Contest

Winter conventions of the Republican Party are usually dull, especially when an incumbent state chairman like Bill McLaughlin of Northville is seeking re-election.

But there could be an interesting contest for the fourth slot on the slate of officers — third vice chairman, it's called. By party rules, it must go to someone between the ages of 18 and 24.

So far it's shaping up as a contest between two 20-year-old college students — Mary Egbert of Northville and Kent Atchison of northwest Detroit.

4 March In Nixon Inaugural

Four Observerland young people marched in President Nixon's inaugural parade Saturday.

They are members of the Bulldog Marching Band of Ferris State College, the only band from Michigan in the parade. The 140-piece organization was one of 45 bands taking part.

Observerland musicians include Thomas L. Griffin, 2818 Briar Hill, Farmington, trombone; Jeff Schulman, 19260 Eldridge, Southfield, French horn; George A. Ramsden, 33143 Grenada, Livonia, trumpet; and Barb Reynolds, 14569 Richfield, Livonia, horn.

HRP To Hold Convention

The Human Rights Party will hold its state convention on Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 27 and 28, in Ann Arbor.

Locations of workshops will be posted in the Faculty Club lounge at the University of Michigan. Activities on Saturday will begin at 11:30 a.m. with registration.

Discussions and the possible election of a statewide organizer will begin at 12 noon on Sunday.

FOR THE LAST decade, the 17th District had consisted of northwest Detroit. After census and redistricting, the Detroit area was shrunk and the Southfield — Lathrup community, greater Farmington and Redford Township were added.

On the basis of the 1970 Republican vote for secretary of state, the Detroit portion gets 64 state convention votes, Redford 18, Southfield and Lathrup 16, and Farmington 16.

Hammond, 43, a Chrysler researcher, has been chairman of the old 17th for the last five years, and he announced at the Wayne-17th convention he would run again.

The Wayne County portion

met in the Carpenters Union

hall on Grand River in Detroit, and precinct delegates had to walk under pictures of

Democrats Harry Truman

and John Kennedy to get into the hall.

OUT IN Farmington,

Oakland delegates met in an insurance company office and calculated they have 28 per cent of the votes and will ask for one State Central Committee seat. Four are elected from each congressional district — two men and two women.

Only two dozen of the 100 or so names on the precinct

delegate lists showed up.

County Commissioner Patrick

Nowak (R-Farmington) was elected convention chairman

as well as chairman of the delegation to the state convention, where William

McLaughlin will undoubtedly be re-elected state chairman.

By convention rules no

resolutions were passed.

William Ortmann, Farm-

ington Township attorney

who ran for the State Supreme Court on a splinter party

ticket, showed up and was appointed to fill a precinct delegate vacancy. He was reappointed to the GOP fold

without comment.

The little group tried to talk

one another into running for district offices, then picked

two persons to approach

Hammond and the Wayne

County contingent for negotiations.

ELECTED DELEGATES to the state convention were:

City of Farmington (4) —

August Babrick Jr., Harvey

Mascoe, Mary Lou Barth and

County Commissioner W.V.

Brotherton.

Farmington Township (12) —

Henry Grysh, Patrick

Nowak, Milton Lichterman,

Marion Livingston, Karen
