Arts Council Series Begins

FARMINGTON The Farmington Community Arts Council adult education series begins March 27 and runs to May 22.

This exposure to art course will be in Farmington High School in the evening, co-sponsored by the Farmington Arts Council.

The council is also sponsoring Max Ellison, a poet from Petosky, who has traveled throughout the United States reciting his own and other famous poets writings.

He will appear Feb. 5 in all of Farmington's Junior High Schools.

The council was also able to enlist the services of Mrs. Debrae Shaver, metal sculptor. She is scheduled to appear in Farmington and Duncun Junior High Schools.

On Feb. 16, Ted Striewski, Farmington sculptor, will present a show in Power and East Junior High Schools.

2 Arrested In Breakin

FARMINGTON James E. Gow, 19, of 22849 Montclair, and Gary DeWar, 19, of 29554 Hemlock, were arraigned before District Judge Michael J. Hand recently on charges of breaking and entering of Woodcreek Elementary School.

The two stood mule, and Hand set $1,000 personal bond on Gow and $5,000 cash on DeWar, with an examination date to be set.

Battery Water Needs Mixing

Batteries should be kept fully charged during winter time driving, according to auto experts. If water is added during freezing weather, the car should be driven several miles to mix the water with the electrolyte to prevent freezing.
