

MAZIE CLAY displays her prize-winning color prints of plants.

Local Lensmen Winners

Observerland photographers won 20 blue and red ribbons, along with "best in show," in the recent Detroit Professional Photographers Assn. exhibit.

Mazie Clay, of Photography by Clay in Livonia, won one of two "best in show" awards with a color print of a bursting milkweed pod. Mrs. Clay also took a blue ribbon and three reds. It was her first year of competition.

Her husband Dick earned four red ribbons.

Charles Blake of Livonia won two blue ribbons and one red; Murray Goldenberg of Southfield won four reds; Joseph Kubek, whose studio is in Garden City, a blue and three reds; and Marilyn Shapiro of Bel-Crest Studio, Farmington, a red ribbon.

2 Directors Are Elected

Representatives of two local firms were elected to posts in the Michigan Movers & Warehousemen's Assn. and General Tariff Bureau Inc. during their annual meeting held in Troy.

A.J. Monro of Wolverine Storage Co. in Livonia, was elected to the association's board of directors. Paul Moellering of Arrow Moving Co. in Livonia was elected to the bureau's board of directors.

Schoolcraft Retirement Programs Are Opening

Information of special importance to retirees and pre-retirees will be available to persons living in Garden City and Plymouth beginning Feb. 27 and March 1, respectively.

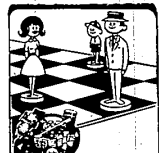

Those are the dates for the first sessions of a six-week program by Schoolcraft College senior adult affairs office. Telephone enrollments will be accepted daily from 8 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

A brochure explaining the program in more detail may be requested, and it has a registration form interested persons can complete and mail in to the college.

THE NEW beginning program is headed by Mrs. Betty Andrews, who directs Schoolcraft's senior adult affairs programs.

"Since life is a do-it-yourself experience," she says, "persons in the retirement age group will help themselves a great deal and have fun doing it at our discussion groups." She said there is no charge for the program and that enrollment will be on a first-come basis.

Weekly meetings will cover
