

Township Police Collect Trophies

FARMINGTON The brass is the glittering collection of trophies accumulated by the team. In the first month of 1973 they have won 19 trophies.

Some of the events they have entered include the Flint Combat Pistol League, the Pontiac Police Combat Pistol League, the Columbus, Ohio, pistol match, and the Flint pistol match.

Team members include Raymond Marchewitz, Richard Niemisto, Linda Harris, Charles Archambeau, John Kohls, Wayne Johnston, Clifford Higgins and Paul Phillips.

The team acquired 75 trophies in 1972, and appears to be on its way to its best season this year.

Just to prove administration doesn't dull the competitive edge, Director Ronald Hooker also took first place in the South Oakland Police Chief's match and first place in the FBI retraining shoot.

Odie Belcher Is Sentenced

FARMINGTON Odie F. Belcher, 22, 21324 Jefferson, was sentenced to 1½ to 2½ years in Jackson State Prison recently by Oakland County Circuit Court Judge William Hampton following his conviction on charges of carrying a concealed weapon.

Belcher was arrested by Farmington Township Police Sept. 22, 1972, and charged with carrying a .25 caliber pistol.

The Lutheran Retirement Center

now under construction on Earhart Road at Glacier Way in Ann Arbor

There's a new style of retirement living waiting for you when The Lutheran Retirement Center opens in a few months . . . retirement living that means freedom from the responsibilities of home maintenance, meal preparation, food shopping, and the anxiety of future care. Here, in a dignified and gracious environment, you'll meet congenial companions, enjoy the independence that you've earned and deserve, and be better prepared to pursue the interests that retirement gives you the time to follow. This interdenominational community's advantages are many, and they include private apartments each with full safety-equipped bath, individually-controlled air conditioning and heat, scheduled local transportation, planned social and educational activities, nutritious meals prepared in The Center's own kitchens, heavy cleaning, and flat laundry done for you. But above all, a life-lease assures you worry-free living for life—plus the health, therapy and convalescent services of The Center's own attached facilities. You owe it to yourself—and others—to get complete information soon.

Fill out and mail this request soon for information about The Lutheran Retirement Center, or call 313-653-1330.
