

Co-Op Bible School Will Be Planned

Planning will begin for this summer's sessions of a cooperative backyard Bible school at a meeting at 2 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 15, in the Church of the Savior, Reformed Church in America, 3810 Five Mile, Livonia.

For the past several summers, 400 to 600 children have been involved in the schools. Among the churches participating have been St. Edith Catholic Church, St. Timothy Lutheran Church, Livonia Christian Church and the Church of the Savior.

Anyone interested is invited to attend the meeting. It is hoped that the program may be broadened so that more churches will participate.

A new piano, given in memory of Jay W. Formosa, will be dedicated at special services at 7 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 11, in the Church of the Savior, Reformed Church in America, 3810 Five Mile, Livonia.

Formosa was principal of Stevenson High School and was also Sunday School superintendent and vice president of the Consistory of the Church of the Savior.

Mrs. Weldon Cooke of Berrien Springs will play the piano for an evening of hymn singing. Dr. and Mrs. Cooke are long-time friends of the Formosas.

The Rev. Moody Yap, minister of evangelism, will be the tenor soloist.

There will be a congregational potluck supper at 6 p.m. Those attending are asked to bring their own table services and one hot and one cold dish to pass. Beverages will be provided.

REV. ROBERT WARD

breakfast at 8:30 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 17, in Orchard United Methodist Church, 30450 Farmington Road, Farmington.

The breakfast will be the first in a series of events leading up to a lay-witness mission March 24.

Rev. Ward is a native of Detroit and graduated from Duke University in 1949 and from Yale in 1952. He received a DD degree from Adrian College in 1958. He served as pastor of churches in Detroit, Troy, Marquette, Tipton, Adrian and Flint. He was named superintendent last June.

He and his wife and two daughters live in Ann Arbor. Both men and women are invited to attend the breakfast, which is being sponsored by the Methodist Men.

2 Assembly Of God Churches Will Merge

Two local Assembly of God churches, Parkdale and Plymouth, are merging into a single congregation this month.

When the move is completed, they will be meeting in the church home of the Plymouth Assembly, 42021 Ann Arbor Trail, under the leadership of the Rev. David Krist, present Parkdale pastor.

A new church name will be selected.

The Rev. Warren Tyler, Plymouth Assembly pastor, has resigned, and the present Parkdale building, located at 36516 Parkdale, south of Plymouth Road near Levan, will be sold.

RAPID GROWTH of the Parkdale Assembly, which with 70 members was getting too large for the present quarters, was one of the reasons for the move. The Plymouth assembly numbers about 30.

Votes for the merger were taken by both congregations at the close of worship services Sunday, Feb. 4.

On Sunday, Feb. 11, both congregations will meet in their present locations with the two pastors exchanging pulpits.

The two assemblies will come together at 7 p.m. Sunday to hear the Sherwood Singers, a gospel group from the Grand Rapids area.

THE FIRST joint meeting of the congregations in the Plymouth church will take place Wednesday, Feb. 14, at 7:30 p.m.

At that time there will be a special showing of the new David Wilkerson Youth Crusades film, "The Rap-ture." The public will be invited to see the film, being shown for the first time in this area and depicting a news report of the world 24-hours after the return of Christ.

The first Sunday service for the congregations together will take place in the Plymouth sanctuary at 11 a.m. Sunday, Feb. 18.

A communion service with bread sharing - breaking of small loaves - will feature that meeting. The farewell service for Rev. Tyler will be held at 7 p.m. Feb. 18.

Couples' Club Plans Auction

The Couples' Club of St. Matthew United Methodist Church has been collecting items since November to be auctioned off at an attic auction, on Saturday, Feb. 10.

The event will be held in the Fellowship Hall of the church, 30900 W. Six Mile, Livonia, beginning at 4 p.m. Admission is free, and refreshments will be available.

Items will include some antiques, tools, furniture, sports equipment and toys.

Rabbi Will Discuss Evangelism

Rabbi Sherwin Wine will discuss "Angry Jews and Christian Evangelism" at 8:30 p.m., Friday, Feb. 16, in the Birmingham Temple, 28611 W. 12 Mile, Farmington.

Deaf Students Will Benefit

A scholarship fund for the Lutheran School for the Deaf will benefit from a cassino and card party to be held from 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday, Feb. 19.

The party will be held in the school auditorium, 6861 E. Nevada, Detroit. It is being sponsored by the Lutheran Ladies Auxiliary for the Deaf.

Alumni Meet

The mid-winter meeting of the Detroit Chapter of Manchester College Alumni will be held in the Pancake House, 10001 Telegraph, at 6 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 11.

Tickets Will Be Available at the Door at $1.75

A service on the theme of "Self - Respect" will be presented.

Rabbi Wine's talk will deal with the new fundamentalist upsurge in America. He says, "All kinds of conservative Christian denominations are uniting to assault the public with a new evangelism."

"In fact, many young Jews have already succumbed to their propaganda. Is the anger of the rabbinate and the official Jewish establishment an appropriate response to this? How should we react?" he will ask.
