

45 Musicians To Play At SC

An unusual musical group called the Genesee Valley Chamber Ensemble will present a concert at Schoolcraft College on Monday, Feb. 19.

The ensemble is composed of 45 musicians from Flint and around the state who meet weekly for 18 weeks of rehearsals and performances each season. Membership is by invitation.

The program begins at 8 p.m., in the Waterman

Campus Center on the campus, 18600 Schoolcraft, Livonia. There is no admission charge. It is a presentation of the Cultural and Public Affairs Committee.

Two members of the Schoolcraft College staff will perform with the ensemble. Keith Burton, a data processing instructor, plays tuba and is a regular member of the group.

Robert W. Jones, composer and music instructor, will guest conduct the ensemble when it presents his composition, "How the Mighty Have Fallen." Both men live in Plymouth.

Other selections on the program are Bach's "Little Prelude and Fugue," ## amusements

Williams' "Toccata Marziale," Read's "Dunlap's Creek" and Mohaupt's "Town Piper Music."

Formed three years ago and conducted by Joseph D. Parker, the group has three major goals - to read and perform excellent wind music literature, to encourage regular and faithful attendance of its members, and to promote an opportunity for excellence in performance.

Parker is chairman of the Dundora High School, Royal Oak, fine arts department and director of bands.

Administrative details of the ensemble are handled by a four - member steering committee and members assess themselves for all expenses. This includes paying the conductor, purchasing folios, mailing, publicity and printing costs.

Circus Visits

BIRMINGHAM Channel 7's "Super Circus" will visit the Community House, 380 S. Bates, for two performances, at 1 and 3 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 17. Tickets are now on sale at the Community House.
