

Nichols Will Talk At Meet

Detroit Police Commissioner John Nichols will be guest speaker tonight (Wednesday) at the dinner meeting of International Management Council's North Detroit Management Chapter.

The meeting is at Vladimir's, 28125 Grand River, Farmington. Nichols will speak on "The Detroit Police Department - Our Problems, Plans and Progress."

WILLIAM H. MCGUIRE JR., 29616 Middle Belt, Farmington Township, has been appointed president of the General Motors Management Club of Detroit. McGuire, Detroit zone manager for the Chevrolet, Motor Division, is the club's 36th president and also becomes chairman of GM's field relations committee as part of his responsibilities. He joined the company in 1946 after serving with the U.S. Army Air Corps in World War II. He has held several managerial assignments and earned a master's degree in liberal arts.

GLEN MINGO, 29531 Pipers Lane, Farmington has been appointed to the financial standards committee of the American Automobile Assn. Mingo, treasurer for the Automobile Club of Michigan and its insurance exchange, has been with the organization since 1959.

JOHN P. CHAPMAN of Birmingham has been appointed commercial lending officer for National Bank of Detroit serving the Farmington area. Chapman will be responsible for servicing accounts of Farmington's businesses and businessmen. A 12-year employe of the bank, Chapman previously was commercial lending officer in Rochester.

ELWOOD W. GOODWIN, 36419 Sunnysdale, Livonia, has been appointed manager of industrial engineering for Bendix Corp.'s automotive after-market operations in South Bend, Ind., where he will move. Goodwin joined Bendix in October after working in Ford Motor Co.'s parts division in Livonia. He holds a bachelor degree in engineering from Northeastern University in Boston, Mass. and is a member of the American Institute of Industrial Engineers and American Management Assn.

Bill Exempts Disabled Vets From Taxes

State Sen. Carl Pursell (R-Plymouth) has co-sponsored a bill to exempt property of disabled war veterans or their widows from Michigan property taxes.

"I think it is only fair that we provide some measure of relief to these people who have given so much to their country and to their widows who often find the property tax burden in waning years too heavy for them to bear on limited incomes," he said.

International Village Trip For Your Child?

Parents of 11-year-olds in the metropolitan Detroit area who would be interested in providing their children with an international living experience are being invited to a meeting Sunday, Feb. 25, to learn about Children's International Summer Village.

The meeting will be from 2 to 5 p.m. at Mercy College, Southfield Road and Outer Drive.

The village is an international organization whose main goal is achieving peace in the world through children. Each summer, delegations of 11-year-olds from many countries are sent to a village in a foreign nation.

This year the local chapter will send four children to a camp in Austria from July 11 to Aug. 8.
