Bride Makes Own Wedding Gown

Sally Anthony made the candlelight satin wedding gown and the veil she wore to become the bride of Donald Pancheta in a recent ceremony in Greenfield Congregational Church, Dearborn.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Anthony of Northville Forest Drive, Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Pancheta of Dearborn are the bridegroom's parents.

Wedding and engagement announcements and pictures must be mailed or brought to the office of The Observer Newspapers, 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia, 48150. Forms to supply the necessary information are available there. Pictures should be black and white and clear.

Engagement pictures must be of the bride alone and will be used one-column only. Wedding pictures may be of the bride alone (one- or two-column) or of the bride and bridegroom (two-column).

Our charge for printing wedding and engagement pictures is $2.50 for a one-column picture and $5 for two-column pictures. Checks should be made out to the Observer Newspapers, and should be included when the announcements are mailed. Also needed for announcements mailed to the office is a telephone number where the information can be checked during the day.

Pictures will be returned after publication if an addressed, stamped envelope is supplied. They also will be picked up at the office at 36251 Schoolcraft after publication.

There is no charge for announcements with no picture.

It is not possible to inform you exactly when an announcement will be printed.

pale blue satin ribbon held her illusion veil, and her flowers were white roses, baby's breath and ivy.

Mrs. William Hedges of Fort Wayne, Ind., was matron of honor for her sister, and Patricia Kasten of Zeeland, Mich., the bridegroom's sister, was bridesmaid.

They wore romance blue chiffon gowns with blue venise lace trim and deep blue velvet accents. Blue daisies fashioned their bouquets and headpieces.

ASSISTING the bridegroom were Richard Laing of Florida as best man and William Nowicke of Warren and Alan Heliste of Troy as ushers.

The newlyweds greeted 200 guests at a reception in the Elks Country Club in Terre Haute before leaving for a Florida honeymoon. They will live in Westland.

The new Mrs. Kasten is a graduate of Indiana State University in Terre Haute. Her husband graduated from Florida State University in Lakeland and served three years as a captain in the U.S. Army, stationed in Korea, Panama and Vietnam.

He is employed by Detroit Diesel division of General Motors Corp. as an international service engineer.

HERA-LINE gown featured seed pearl trim on the sleeves and at the neckline. Her veil was floor-length, and in her bridal bouquet were cream roses and carnations matching the velvet gowns worn by her attendants.

Mrs. Sue Cannon of Plymouth, matron of honor for her sister, wore a wine velvet gown with a pink sash and carried a lighted candle lantern with pink carnations around its base.

Flower girl Julie Cannon, niece of the bride, also wore wine velvet.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Kay Bilmer of Westland, in blue velvet, Mrs. Elaine Allore of Romulus, in purple, Janet Townsend of Westland, in green, and Joan Pancheta of Dearborn, sister of the bridegroom, in gold.

All carried lighted candle lanterns with carnations matching their gowns.

JERRY PANCHETA of Livonia was best man for his brother. The ushers were Tom Henn, Frank Franchi and Joe Karmann of Dearborn and Fred Uchwat of Royal Oak.

For the wedding and reception in PLAY No. 75 Hall in Dearborn, the bride's mother wore apple green chiffon and the bridegroom's mother selected a navy and gold costume.

After a honeymoon in Hawaii, the newlyweds are living in Westland.

The new Mrs. Pancheta has degrees from Central Michigan and Eastern Michigan Universities and teaches in the Cherry Hill school district. Her husband earned bachelor and master's degrees at Wayne State University and teaches in the Dearborn school district.

Towne Club Meets Feb. 22

unless there is recruitment among minorities and among women.

"No employer would be asked to hire an unqualified applicant for any job. But to achieve balance from a racial and sex standpoint, it might be found that he should hire an applicant who is qualified for the job but not necessarily the most qualified."

WHAT CAN women interested in equal rights do to be more involved?

"First," advised Mrs. Wylie, "examine your basic beliefs about equality. I did when I accepted my job on the commission, and I made a moral decision. After that, life was easier, and logical steps followed."

She suggested that women then make their beliefs known as issues arise "because if we don't do this, we leave the
