Security . . . Companionship . . . Interdenominational . . . Yours in 1973 at

The Lutheran Retirement Center

now under construction on Earhart Road at Glacier Way in Ann Arbor

There's a new style of retirement living waiting for you when The Lutheran Retirement Center opens in a few months . . . retirement living that means freedom from the responsibilities of home maintenance, meal preparation, food shopping, and the anxiety of future care. Here, in a dignified and gracious environment, you'll meet congenial companions, enjoy the independence that you've earned and deserve, and be better prepared to pursue the interests that retirement gives you the time to follow. This interdenominational community's advantages are many, and they include private apartments each with full safety-equipped bath, individually-controlled air conditioning and heat, scheduled local transportation, planned social and educational activities, nutritious meals prepared in The Center's own kitchen, heavy cleaning and flat laundry done for you. But above all, a life-lease assures you worry-free living for life—plus the health, therapy and convalescent services of The Center's own attached facilities. You owe it to yourself—and others—to get complete information soon.

Fill out and mail this request soon for information about The Lutheran Retirement Center, or call 313-653-1330.
