Daily Thought.
There is a time in every man's education when he arrives at the conviction that envy is ignorance; that imitation is suicide; that he must take himself for better or worse, as his portion; that though the wide universe is full of good, no kernel of nourishing corn can come to him but through his toil bestowed on that plot of ground which is given him to till. Trust thyself; every heart vibrates to that iron string.—R. W. Emerson.

Famous Regiment.
The Huffs, the famous old "Nut-crackers," of which the king of Denmark was appointed colonel-in-chief on his recent visit to England, are one of the oldest corps in the British army. They were evolved from the old trained band in the days of Elizabeth, and because of this ancient connection with the capital they have the privilege of marching through the city of London with fixed bayonets, beating drums and flying colors.

A street peddler blew into town last Saturday evening, lit a gas lamp, made a lot of noise, drew a big crowd, sold a lot of unknown merchandise, grabbed a nice bunch of loose change, that could and would have done twice as much service in the local stores, said goodnight, blew out his light, and left.

Mrs. Forest Pierson was a Royal Oak last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ward of Milford visited Mrs. Jane McManus and family last Tuesday.

Last Saturday the big pump at the water plant was put out of commission, and as a result the little pump is being used this week. The broken parts were expressed to the manufacturers for repairs, which will be made as rapidly as possible.

The ball games at Redford next Saturday are going to be record breakers, and word comes from Redford that the team from that place is "loaded" to the extreme limit. Cheer up, you local fans, as there will probably be A FEW changes in the Farmington lineup. Let's have a big crowd of rooters.

Miss Ivy Redding of the Enterprise force has been extremely ill for the past several days, and compelled to refrain from duties at the office. ### Filtered Gaslight For Rural Homes

Acetylene Gaslight is a natural light. In fact it is plain, everyday, world-wide Sunlight. But it is Sunlight muffled so that you can use it as "soft" or as brilliant as you choose, by the mere turning of a tap on the chandeliers, or by the use of plain white glass globes.

Moreover, Acetylene is practically filtered light from which all useless or injurious color, soot, or excessive heat factors are eliminated.

On this account an Acetylene flame, one-tenth the size of that from Kerosene, Gasoline or City Gas, gives as much reading light as ten-tenths of these other illuminants. Which means that Acetylene produces only a fraction of the heat, air-consumption and Carbonic Acid Gas poisoning which other lights produce.

About two day's labor will install a PILOT Country Home Acetylene Plant, and forever dispense with the disagreeable lamp cleaning, filling, wick snuffing and chimney wiping needed 365 days in a year with kerosene lamps.

You can use Pilot Acetylene too, as fuel in your kitchen range—clean, concentrated gas fuel that will do away entirely with coal and ashes.

Write me today how many rooms and how many barns and outbuildings you've got—then I will tell you how little it need cost you to install a suitable Pilot Lighting Plant—an Automatic Pilot which will be good for many years' steady use and pay for itself in the labor it saves. Address me thus—
