The editor of a country newspaper is always receiving signal recognition in one form or another. A Chinese almanac issued in China came to our desk the first of the week, with the explanation that in view of the fact that there was no Chinaman living here it was to go to the editor. It is real interesting and we'd like to find someone who can read it for us.

There are 105 divorce cases on the docket for the September term of the circuit court. This includes actions brought to annul marriages. This is said to be the largest number of divorces that have ever appeared on a calendar of the circuit court and Judge Smith expects to be kept busy. There are also a large number of suits brought to clear title to Oakland county lands.

Frank F. Zessau and the editor drove out to West Farmington last Saturday morning, on a little business trip, which rapidly developed into one of extreme pleasure, as the big apple orchards in that district are certainly a sight worth seeing. We stopped at the big Kurz farm, and secured some mighty fine apples, and otherwise enjoyed the hospitality of the Kurz brothers.

Dwarf Trees.
The Chinese influence on interior decoration extends to the wonderful dwarf trees which, once almost prohibitively expensive, are now to be had at really popular prices, commencing at about 60 cents for diminutive yews and cedars that look as if they had come out of a "Kewpie's" garden. Stately oaks, sycamores, cedars, standing at least 20 inches high, are wonderful with their gnarled and twisted branches and close foliage; they appear like ancient forest trees viewed from afar and through the "wrong end" of a telescope.

Jewelry, Perhaps.
A western girl has just decided that a wagon is in "wearing apparel." Under what classification would it put a bone head?—Puck.
