Happy Bake Days

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

The cook is happy, the other members of the family are happy—appetites sharpen, things brighten up generally. And Calumet Baking Powder is responsible for it all. For Calumet never fails. Its wonderful leavening qualities insure perfectly shortened, faultlessly raised bakings. Cannot be compared with other baking powders, which promise without performing. Even a beginner in cooking gets delightful results with this never-failing Calumet Baking Powder. Your grocer knows. Ask him.

Paris Exposition, France, March, 1912.

You don't save money when you buy cheap or big-can baking powder. Don't be misled. Buy Calumet. It's more economical—more wholesome—gives best results. Calumet is far superior to any other brand.

Baby Show A Big Success

The Baby Show given by the entertainment committee of the Wagneli Rebekah Lodge of Farmington at the Odd Fellows Hall here, Saturday afternoon, was a decided success in every way. The hall was crowded with visitors. Thirty-six children under four years were registered as contestants. So many beautiful pieces of work were given for prizes, the committee had a busy time thinking of ways to dispose of them.

The judges of the event were: Mrs. William Shea, Mrs. Eva Monroe of Welcome Rebekah Lodge of Pontiac and Mrs. Henry Franklin of Northville.

The prizes were awarded as follows:

Two Public Sales

L. C. Gardner, the well known auctioneer, has booked two big auction sales for early in November, the first coming on Nov. 5th, 2 miles west of Hantz Hotel on Simms road, between Evergreen and Mill Roads, when J. C. Wohlgelegen will sell a big lot of farm machinery, etc. The other sale comes on Nov. 9th, at the Strong Farm in Greenfield Township, when George Williams will offer a big list of all kinds of machinery, live stock, etc., with a big free lunch at noon. Mr. Gardner will be in charge of both sales, which insure a big crowd.

Hallowe'en Social

The Ladies Aid will give an entertainment and social at the Town Hall, next Saturday evening, in keeping with the Hallowe'en traditions. Along with the entertainment, a witch, fortune teller and other noted Hallowe'en personages will be present to add to the fun of the evening.

Refreshments will be served to the public. 10 cents admission will be charged, everything included.

Mrs. Harrison Johnson is substituting as teacher in the Intermediate Department of the Farmington school this week during the absence of Miss Jarvis, who has been ill and is at home for a short rest.

Ladies Literary Club

The Ladies Literary Club met Wednesday October 21st at the home of Mrs. Martha Schroeder. The beautiful afternoon brought out a fine attendance, twenty-three members and five guests being present.

Mrs. Lillian Avery of Pontiac, recently returned from abroad, solicited the help of the society for the purpose of raising money to assist in equipping a hospital in Paris. During her journey Mrs. Avery visited many parts of the present war zone, and in behalf of this charitable purpose she will give a lecture in the near future, under the auspices of the Ladies Literary club, describing existing conditions in those countries.

The Oakland County Federation of Women's Clubs will meet at Oxford October 28 and 29. Mrs. Martha Hatton has been appointed to represent this club as delegate.

The program of the afternoon began the study of "The Tempest," Mrs. Flora Hendricks as leader reading the introduction and acts One and Two were read by the club.

Mrs. Nellie Dickinson read an interesting magazine article on Shakespeare Women Folk.

The club will meet November 4, with Mrs. Inda Hambleton.

"The Dependables" Organize

The young ladies of the Sunday school class of Mrs. M. B. Pierce met at the Pierce home last Saturday evening and made final organization by adoption of a constitution and bylaws prepared by the executive committee recently elected at an earlier meeting.

The organization was made to further the work of the Sunday school, and a very appropriate class name, "The Dependables," was selected.

The first meeting for real work will be held the second Saturday afternoon in November at the home of their teacher.

Reception for M. E. Pastor

A reception was given in honor of Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Stevenson by the members of the Methodist church, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Dickerson, on Grand River Avenue, last Tuesday evening.

The reception was given for the purpose of giving the people of Farmington an opportunity to become acquainted with the new pastor and his wife, and a large number, both old and young were in attendance.

The evening was very pleasantly spent in social chat, and light refreshments were served by the members of the Ladies Aid.

Plan Early For New Year's Ball

The Farmington Chapter of the Eastern Star have begun already to make plans for their Second Annual New Year's ball, to be given at the Odd Fellows Hall.

The observation of New Year's Eve by the big ball is coming to be the biggest event of the season for Farmington, and the fact that the ladies of the O. E. S. are to be the hostesses insures the royalty of the pre-announced plans if nothing more be said.

Sunday, October 18th was the occasion of the 48th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Steele, and the 21st wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Orion Evert, the latter a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steele. A family celebration was held at the Evert home in Southfield, about 40 relatives being present to enjoy the day and big spread prepared for the occasion.

"AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION"

is worth a ton of worry. A little savings account on the side, will prove mighty comforting in times of trouble.
