tree

That standeth broad and tall;
In whose very topmost branches

A blue-greed dolly swings.

Willie lower down to a triendly bough

A Teddy bearlet clines;
And there quite close or reddy

Hangs with saidta sengended,

To make a warlke din;

A file with saidta sengended,

To make a warlke din;

A file with wondrous musio

Quite hidd'n away inside;

A sied so strong and splendl

That at least four boys may ride;

A picture book of fairles;

An engine that will run;

A toy plano with real keys,

A tool chest and a gun;

And from the gay, goes branches,

Festooned as of soft white poporon

That glistens in the light,

And everywhere hangs candy

For children, great and small.

So, of all the Childhood's memories,

This seemeth the best of all.

Age-Herald.

Leave your irritation where Twill be comrade for your care.

Into trouble's ample pouch Stow away your ugty grouch Leave behind you frow and scow!

Put away each sneer and grow!,
Angry fling and fretful word.
Put them where they won't be heard.
