Kessell, Dickinson & Dickinson's

Tenth Annual MID-WINTER SALE

Begins Saturday, January 2, 1915

Our motto which we have lived up to for the past ten years, is well known to the people of this city and county. FIRST--We believe in disposing of merchandise in the season for which it was bought. SECOND--We believe in turning all left-overs into money which enables us to go into the market open handed and dictate rather than be dictated to. THIRD--We believe with the arrival of each new season in showing new and always up to date merchandise to our customers. FOURTH--We believe when we have a sale in letting every person in city and county know about it so that all will have an equal chance to share in the bargains offered.

The Mens' Store of Pontiac for Men--CLEAN-UP DAYS IN WINTER CLOTHING

There is usually one place to which men turn for clothes-especially at this period between seasons. Amid the maze of mark-downs there's a sense of satisfaction in knowing there is one safe place at which to secure good clothes at actual reduction--Kessel, Dickinson & Dickinson. FIRST AND FOREMOST among the clothing lines we feature at all times are the well known Stein Bloch, Michaels Stern & Co., and Clothcraft. Our prices will be maintained as follows during the month of January:

One-fourth Off Entire Stock of Men's Suits and Overcoats.
One-fourth Off Entire Stock of Boys' Suits and Overcoats.
One-fourth Off Entire Stock of Fur and Fur Lined Coats.
20 per cent Off Entire Stock of Sweaters, Hats, Fur and Fur Lined Gloves.
10 per cent Off on Furnishings on Purchases of 50 cents or upwards.
10 per cent Off on Boys' Knee Pants.
Extra specials will be added. Watch for these specials.

Gore, Ga., R. A. Morgan had occasion recently to use a liver medicine and says of Foley Cathartic Tablets: "They thoroughly cleansed my system and I felt like a new man—light and free. They are the best medicine I have ever taken for constipation. They keep the stomach sweet, liver active, bowels regular. T. H. McGee.

Checks Croup Instantly

You know croup is dangerous. And you ought to know too, the sense of security that comes from having Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in the house. It cuts the thick mucus and clears away the phlegm, stops the strangling cough and gives easy breathing and quiet sleep. Every user is a friend.—T. H. McGee.

RING OUT, YE BELLS!

IN every country where man keeps New Year's the pealing of the bells is the first herald of dawn of the holiday. For fifteen centuries, ever since Bishop Paulinus introduced bells in the ceremonies of the Christian church, the custom has been followed. It grew out of the ancient habit of exorcising malignant spirits with chimes so that the journey of the dead into the great beyond should be undisturbed.

The great bell of Moscow, the Liberty bell, John Bunyan's bell, the chimes of Old Christ church in Philadelphia, are some of the noted relics whose brazen throats have told the coming of a new year. Modern skill has made the chimes a part of a complicated machine operated by electricity and played by the ringer, much as a pianist sits before his instrument, but whether operated by old or modern methods the New Year's peals hold their place undisturbed in the affections of man.

As We Approach a Year.

We approach a new and untried year. As we cross its threshold to meet new and enlarged opportunities let it be with a steadfast purpose to increase our fund of knowledge, our strength of character, our usefulness and helpfulness as never before, realizing that, at best, "the time is short." May the thoughts we have been considering so take possession of us, the purposes born of them so govern that our lives will be sweeter, happier, more practically and truly successful during such time as remains to us here and better fitted for the dawn of that new time which shall be reckoned not by years and have no end.
