WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

Little News Notes Which the Editor has culled from Exchanges.

Birmingham is in the midst of a diphtheria scare, several families being affected.

At a special school election held recently at Oxford, a proposition to bond the school district for $15,000 for an addition to the Oxford school building, was carried by a majority of over three to one, 97 voting yes, and 27 no.

Carl Vick who lives near Rochester received a check for $25.00 from the Detroit Board of Health as a prize for having the highest milk test of any milk shipped to Detroit from that locality, and a complimentary letter on his painstaking manner in caring for his milk.

Depositors in the Flat Rock Bank stand to lose about $75,000, the receiver being discharged last week. The bank and its affairs have attracted no little attention throughout the state.

The Northville Record advises automobiles that are in the habit of "turning turtle", to try "turning snail", and the turtle part in future wouldn't be so numerous.
Neither would the funerals.

The Oakland County Poultry Show opens next Tuesday, January 12th, at Pontiac.

The Birmingham Eclectic wants a "real" telephone line to Detroit, that's what they do, and have come right out and said that they are willing to pay for it. Ditto, Farmington.

Redford is to have a new garage in the near future, says the Record.

Methodist Church

The pastor will preach a series of sermons Sunday evenings on the following interesting subjects:

Jan. 10—The Devil in Disguise.
Jan. 17—The Devil's Bid for a Young Man

Jan. 24—The Devil's Poison.
Jan. 31—The Devil's 42 Cent meter.

Feb. 7—The Devil's Own Place.
Next Sunday morning the subject is: "Israel's Great Leader", in the evening, "The Devil in Disguise." Sunday school at 11:30 a. m., and Epworth League at 6:15 p. m.

A welcome to all.

Ladies Literary Club

The regular meeting of the Ladies Literary Club was held at the home of Mrs. Nellie Dickerson on Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 6th.
After a brief business meeting the following program was given:

"What Christmas Should be in New York", by Mrs. Ella Irish.
Reading of Act Three of "King Richard Third", by club, Mrs.
Noble acting as leader. Mrs. Ida Hambleton then read an article by Dorothy Dix, "How a Husband Likes to be Treated", which gave the ladies many ideas on managing the "Lords of Creation."

The club adjourned to meet Jan.
20th: with Mrs. Minnie Hogle.

Dairy Meeting

The Clarenceville Dairyman's Association will hold their regular meeting on next Tuesday evening, January 12th, in the basement of the Barker store at Clarenceville.
The meeting will be an especially interesting one, as the stock of the milk producers of Bell Branch will be openly discussed, and the dairyman's problems are urged to attend the meeting.

Death of W. I. Ely

It was sad news that was brought to Farmington last Sunday morning, when word was received by telephone of the death of William Evan Ely, at the family home at Ann Arbor, to which city he had traveled but a few days previously.

He had been in poor health of late, and at the time of leaving here was suffering from the effects of lagrippe, more or less aggravated by a carbuncle. Later blood poisoning set in and he became steadily worse, passing away Sunday morning at an early hour.

The Judge, as he was generally known hereabouts, was at the time of his death nearly 67 years of age, being born Feb. 10, 1848, at Heightstown, N. J. During his business career he has held many responsible positions, and at the time of his death was building up a flourishing business in his local newspaper agency. His friends were numbered only by those who knew him.

The funeral services were held from the home at Ann Arbor Tuesday morning, and interment at Elmwood cemetery, Detroit, the same afternoon.

Many relatives are left to mourn his loss, including a wife, two daughters and a son, to whom the sympathy of the community is extended.

Gilt Edge News Items

Miss Carrie Riddle of the Detroit schools, spent the Christmas holidays at her home.

Levi Packow, who has been quite ill this winter, is able to be about and attended the Christmas exercises at the Briggs school. His many friends are pleased to hear of his recovery.

Miss Mae Foster of Detroit spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradsell, who have been staying the past year with their uncle, Pitt Everett and family, have moved back to Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kincaid of Detroit have moved into Pitt Everett's tenant house. George will try farming this year for his health.
Messrs. Earl Gray of Northville, Ralph Cramer of Redford, and Kathryn and Mildred Simmonds were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gray of Northville New Years Day.

Mrs. R. J. Foster visited relatives in Detroit Monday.

Mrs. M. J. Krieger, who has been ill, is better.

Record Crowd Attends Ball

The annual O. E. S. Ball, given at Odd Fellow Hall, by that society last Thursday evening, was with out doubt the largest and most enjoyable event of the season, when in excess of 150 tickets were issued at the door, admitting as many dancers.

Stone's orchestra was on hand early in the evening, and the floor was constantly packed with dancers throughout the evening.

The crowd was the largest dance crowd that has gathered here this season, and the committee in charge is to be congratulated for their efforts in making it the success that it proved.

Life Insurance Refused

Ever notice how closely life insurance examiners look for symptoms of kidney diseases? They do so because weakened kidneys lead to many forms of dreadful life threatening conditions. If you have symptoms like pain in the back, frequent, scanty or painful action, head feeling, aches and pains, get Foley's Kidney Pills today.
