The Ladies Aid Society, group one, of the M. E. church, will serve a 20 cent lunch at the home of Mrs. D. R. Dickerson this evening.

The band is holding regular rehearsals at the water works hall, and will probably be ready for concert work within a very few weeks.

Rehearsals for the graduating class play "A College Town", are well under way, and are being conducted several nights out of each week.

Misses Florence Hicks, Ernestine Pierce, Edna Price and Hazel Steele went to Detroit Saturday evening where they attended a production of "Daddy Long Legs" at the Detroit Opera House.

The war pictures at the New Alseium Tuesday evening drew a large crowd, and many occupied standing room space. The pictures were reported good by all who saw them.

Ford cars continue, in popular demand, and five more sales are reported by the Park Garage for this week. The buyers are Dan Matthews, Arthur P. Coo, Joseph P. Miller, Ed Moore and Chas. Kittle.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weaver, former Farmington residents, but now living at Traverse City, are the parents of a 10-pound son, born Wednesday night, April 14. The little fellow has been named, Robert Harry.

The Old Time dance given at Odd Fellow Hall last Friday evening was a success in every detail, and drew many of the old timers from all of the surrounding country. The event was as unique as it was enjoyable.

The Farmington Guild held their regular monthly meeting at the Town Hall last Monday evening, with a goodly representation of the membership in attendance, and a good time is reported by all present.

Dr. D. R. Switzer of Blissfield has rented C. M. Doherty's house on Grand River, and will remove his family thereto as soon as numerous alterations are completed. Dr. Switzer is a veterinarian, and comes to Farmington well recommended.

Invitations are being issued for the Masquerade Dancing Party given by the Harmony Club Friday evening, April 23. Everything possible is being done to make this affair a success. Invitations must be presented, and ladies without escorts will be asked to unmask at the door. Turner's five piece orchestra will render the "very latest" in popular music.

H. P. Randall was looking after business matters in Detroit Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Crosby spent a part of last week with relatives in Pontiac.

The game of baseball which the local High School was to have played with Milford High here tomorrow afternoon has been called off and a game with Northville substituted. It is the first game of the season, and a good turnout is hoped for by the boys, who are working hard to get into playing condition.

Farmington's oiled streets are known all over the state. This week the editor received a letter from Armada, Michigan, asking for information regarding system of oiling, price paid for oil, and the many other details. The business men of Armada are striving to have the streets of that village oiled, and should they succeed will never regret it, we are sure.

The village council have been offered a price of two and three-fourths cents on oil for street purposes this season. Last year four cents per gallon was paid. It is probable that the first oil will be placed on the streets here the latter part of this month, and another application given some time during the middle of the summer. The first consignment will be 6,000 gallons.

The formal opening of Farmington's new Ice Cream Parlor and Lunch Stand was celebrated last Saturday, despite rather unpleasant weather conditions. M. A. Briggs is the new proprietor, having bought the place formerly owned and operated by H. C. Voss, and has entirely remodeled the interior. Mr. Briggs is a pleasant gentleman, who comes to Farmington well recommended and we bespeak for him an excellent patronage.

Any Room Can Be Made Attractive With ROGERS

No doubt you think the room shown in the above cut is very attractive. But it is no more attractive than any of your rooms can be made if you paint the walls with one of the beautiful soft shades of Wall-Tone. You can then keep your walls clean and sanitary by washing them with soap and water. The simple but artistic wall coloring will bring out the best features of everything else in the room. Let us talk to you about the many possibilities of Wall-Tone.
