The addition to the Park Garage has been completed and adds greatly to the appearance as well as the convenience of the garage.

The young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Durham is compelled to be absent from school this week, on account of an attack of chicken pox.

Numerous of the local younger set drove to Walled Lake Monday evening to attend the dancing party given at the Walled Lake hotel.

Adolph Nacker, with Fred L. Cook & Company, has been on the sick list several days this week, which compelled his absence from the store.

Mrs. Charley Pray, formerly Mabel Kennedy, of Delta, Ohio, is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. George Hendryx and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Kennedy and little daughter Virginia of Detroit spent the first of the week with Cloyes Steele and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phelps of New York state, and Mortimer Phelps of Novi, were guests at the home of Mrs. Clara Phelps in the village several days this week.

Mrs. E. C. Redding and daughter, Lucile are expected to arrive from their home at Parker, Kansas for a visit at the home of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Clyde Tebbel.

Little Viola Walters was unable to participate in the Decoration Day exercises given by the school children Monday, on account of an attack of chicken pox.

Mrs. Henry Pauline and Mrs. J. C. Clark went to Detroit Wednesday evening, where they witnessed a production of "Tess of the Storm Country" at the Lyceum.

About 30 autos bearing banners with the wording "Prezyl Club" of Detroit, passed through the village Wednesday morning, enroute so we are informed, to Lansing.

This Friday evening, what will probably be the last dancing party of the season will be given at I. O. O. F. Hall, under the auspices of the Harmony Club. Turner's orchestra has been engaged for the event.

Rev. Willis A. Moore, pastor of the Church of Our Father, Detroit, will occupy the pulpit at the Universalist church next Sunday afternoon at three p. m., when he will take as his subject "Constructive and Destructive Forces".

The Junior Senior class players journeyed to Redford last Saturday evening, where they presented their play, "A College Town", in the new school auditorium. The attendance is reported as being below what had been expected and promised, owing to lack of advertising.

The West Farmington Mothers Club held an ice cream social on the school grounds last Friday evening. A large crowd was in attendance, and the affair was a success financially, ten dollars being cleared. The club is planning the purchase of a piano for the school.

Several thousand tomato plants, standing several feet high, at the local greenhouse, have produced an enormous crop, and the big juicy fellows are just now turning ripe. The Enterprise man acknowledges a treat in the form of several big ones, with the compliments of Mr. Havrane.

In publishing the list of names of musicians in the local band, in last week's issue, 17 names only were given, while the membership numbers 20. Our informant doubtless overlooked two names, as S. Gates on Trombone and Clarence Bell on cornet, are both active and boosting members, as is also Howard Stemann.

The Oakland County Savings Bank of Pontiac has moved into temporary quarters, across the street, which it will occupy until their splendid new building, which is to be erected on the site of the old building, is ready for occupancy. It is expected that the new building will be completed within four months.

Notice of Review of Assessment
Notice is hereby given that the assessment roll of the village of Farmington is completed, and that the same will be reviewed on Tuesday the 15th day of June, 1915, from nine o'clock in the forenoon until five o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the town hall in said village, at which time and place any person deeming themselves aggrieved by said assessment may then be heard.

JOHN H. TRAYER,
Village Assessor.

Only A Few Can Go.
Those who do not have to consider expense are now going to health resorts to get rid of impurities in the system that cause rheumatism; backache aching joints and painful muscles. If you can not go, yet feel you need relief from pain and misery, get Foley kidney pills. They restore the kidneys to activity and make you feel well and strong. For Sale by T. H. McGee.
