

STANDING GUARD — A carved stone eagle nearly five feet tall stands behind a rectangular pool at the foot of a long flight of stone steps from an upper terrace.

SUNDIAL — The delicately carved white marble pedestal bears a sundial inscribed, "Prepare thee for eternity, And do not make delay, Use well these few bright hours, Which soon will pass away."

ORIGINAL ARCHITECTURE—The bay window dates to the original Victorian house built in 1869. Other than this section, little evidence remains of the original residence.

WIDE OPEN—The delicate wrought iron gate is the main entrance to the house.
