by Weldon Clark

Before marriage a man yearns for a woman. Afterward the "y" is silent.

Reminds me of the three ingredients in the good life: learning, earning and yearning.

An adolescent is a youngster who is old enough to dress himself if he could just remember where he dropped his clothes.

Men are creatures who can wait three hours for fish to bite, but can't wait fifteen minutes for their wives to dress.

Never be depressed—setbacks pave the way for comebacks!
