Message of the Hairdresser

There is at the present time no distinct or predominating mode of hairdressing which if not followed will make one appear out of date. On the contrary, the styles are varied enough to suit everybody to select one which is best suited to her particular type.

For the youthful face the Bobby effect is the most successful and attractive, giving the appearance of having the hair bobbed while it is merely pulled under. This is accomplished by the arrangement of hair around the ears, regardless of the finish at the back or forehead, and may be combined with either pompadour, side part or center part.

The soft, slightly waved pompadour is always worn by both young and older women. Middle-aged women are inclined to like a pompadour and high collar, while the younger woman usually favors the more girlish arrangement of the back hair dressed low.

The back hair is dressed in coils, two or three in number, according to size, with careful attention to the contour when finished. Short puffs and curls are sometimes added.

A fact not to be overlooked is that it is well to consider the gown in connection with the coiffure in order to have harmony in make-up. Reserve the conservative style of hairdressing for the business gown, or afternoon gown, and the elaborate style for the dressy frock.

For evening wear brilliant hair ornaments are worn, and they are very important factors in the coiffure for dress occasions. Even high foreheads are left uncovered in the majority of coiffures for evening, but the headbands of velvet or spangles or rhinestones relieve the severity of the hair dress.

For Her Traveling Bag. Among the leather novelties there is the case containing tiny clothespins and clotheslines with glass fasteners, just the very outfit for the woman who is traveling and desires to rinse out a handkerchief or two or perhaps a pair of stockings.

Daily Thought. The great ruling mark of a wise life are indeed few and simple; to do our duty, to avoid useless sorrow and to acquiesce patiently in the inevitable.—W. Lecky.

Tokyo Bags, and Others

Just the handsomest and smartest thing in new handbags is called the "Tokyo" or "Netsuke," and it is made of Tokyo leather. This is a soft, velvety looking embossed leather showing Japanese figures in rich colors against backgrounds of various colors. It is used for belts, collars and cuffs and other dress trimmings, and for chic turbans, which are usually trimmed with small fruits or flowers, made of plain colored leathers.

It is quite impossible to describe the rich and fantastic surfaces that make the new Tokyo such a brilliant adjunct to the toilet, but the colors remind one of those in an India shawl, and the figures lure one to study them. All the colors are soft but full of life. The bags are lined with plain fawn silk and finished with the usual compartments and fittings such as are seen in bagged plain leather. They are finished with the regulation Japanese handle of silver beads and embossed disk set in an ivory or metal ring. In promoting the idea of making the bag and suit to match much interchange of materials has come about. Bags are made of silk, velvet or other fabrics, trimmed with leather, shell or metal frames and mountings and often attached to a shell or other ring to be worn as a bracelet. The leather used for trimming the bag appears in the trimming of the dress. Fulle and taffeta are often combined with velvet in these bags, and bead embroideries are featured on them. Black velvet bags, embroidered with jet beads, are stately and rich, and dark blue satin, embroidered with colored beads, fills the requirements of those who wish these elements in a colored bag. Linings of figured silk are used for these fabric bags.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

BY E. O. BELLER, Acting Director of the Sunday School Course of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

(Copyright, 1915, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR DECEMBER 26

JEHOVAH'S GRACIOUS PROMISES TO ISRAEL (REVIEW).

LESSON TEXT—Hosea 14.

GOLDEN TEXT—Jehovah is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness.—Psa. 103:8 R. V.

The burden of punishment descended upon Israel, not because of the vindictive character of Jehovah, but because of the persistent pursuit of sin on the part of the nation.

The lessons of the past quarter extend from the latter days of Elijah, about 906 B. C., to the fall and captivity of Israel (the northern kingdom) B. C. 722 (Babylon), a period of 180 years. Some contend that the lesson for November 14, Daniel at the King's Court, is chronologically the last and ought to have been put at the end of the series. During the past quarter we have studied about six kings, Ahab, Josiah, Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Nineveh, Uzziah and Hosea; also six prophets, Elijah, Elisha, Daniel, Jonah, Amos and Hosea; and one soldier, Naaman.

A good method of review would be to have assigned to different scholars or classes each of the foregoing personages and to give a report of his chief characteristics. Material for such a review is easily accessible. Another method of review would be to take up the lessons serially and in connection with each read some appropriate Scripture verses that will serve to emphasize or to illustrate the chief fact of each lesson.

Lesson I. The weak King Ahab (strong in his perversity) is easily persuaded to do evil in order to gratify his contentiousness. Elijah, God's command goes to meet Ahab who cries out, "Hast thou found me, O my enemy?" In reply Elijah delivers God's word; that word to us is found in Ex. 17:17. (Let each Scripture reference be read in full.)

Lesson II. The veteran champion Elijah is about to go home and his more youthful follower, Elisha, has one chief desire (see II Kings 4:9), which persistently followed is abundantly rewarded. The lesson for us is found in the master's prayer, John 14:16.

Lesson III. The stricken soldier, Naaman, at a child's suggestion, turns to God's prophet, Elisha, for healing. He is directed how he may be cured and after some hesitation returns home cleansed. The lesson for us is that of being faithful amid life's experiences and of doing and living for others (see also Romans 12:20, 21).

Lesson IV. "The servant of Elisha is very much excited. King and camp are in despair, yet the prophet is not disturbed. Why? Let us read II Kings 6:17. Remember that Jesus, the master of men, refused to avail himself of the angelic assistance in his great battle concerning sin (see Matt. 26:52). Christianity is a religion of love, not of force.

Lesson V. The faithful priest preserves the rightful king, Josiah, and makes a covenant between him and the Lord, viz., that prince, priest and people "should be the Lord's people" (II Kings 11:17). Through the merits of our high priest there has been made a better, even an everlasting covenant (Heb. 10:20, 21).

Lesson VI. Again refers to the good king, Josiah. The neglected temple is restored and refurbished through the liberality of the people. This temple is a type of our bodies, which are spiritual temples (Eph. 2:22), and the lesson for us is not only the care of the body, but of liberality towards the work and worship of God's house.

Lesson VII. This is the lesson which is chronologically out of order, but is used for its temperance application. Daniel, the clean youth, staked his life and position upon obeying the word of God (Dan. 1:8). The lesson for us is the exhortation of the apostle Paul (Eph. 5:13-17, see also I Pet. 5:8).

Lesson VIII is the foreign missionary lesson. Jonah's life story is not a flattering one, yet when he faithfully proclaimed God's word it wrought a marvelous transformation in great and wicked Nineveh. (Read carefully Matt. 18:10 and Isa. 65:10, 11). We are to herald, witness to the truth and leave the results with God.

Lesson IX presents Amos, the sturdy prophet of evils and moral righteousness, the great messenger of the "righteousness of Jehovah" (Amos 5:14). The gist of this lesson for us will be found in the words of Jesus. (Matt. 6:33).

Lesson X. Uzziah is that king who would not withstand prosperity and who, in the development of his pride (II Chron. 26:5, 16), assumed to disobey the word of God.

Lesson XI. Enter Hosea. Let the entire school take the message of the prophet to the people of Israel, "I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely" (Hosea 14:4). Then let all recite the "Little Gospel" (John 3:16): "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

SURE HE KNEW HER NAME

Betty's Indignant Outburst, However, Came at a Time, That Was Most Inopportune.

A Scottish minister was once busy catching his young parishioners before the congregation, when he put the usual first question to a girl whose father kept a drinking place.

"What is your name?"

"The question having been repeated, the girl replied:

"Name of your fun, sir; ye ken my name well enough. Dye no say when ye come to see our house at night, Betty, bring me some toddy."

The congregation, forgetting the sacredness of the place, broke into a loud laugh, and the parson looked dazed.—London Tit-Bits.

FOR PLEURISY, BRONCHITIS AND SORE THROAT

Readers are advised not to dose the stomach. The best way to quickly relieve extreme soreness in the throat or chest is to rub on true Mustardine, which will dissolve the mucus and in 10 to 15 minutes will bring relief.

It is quicker and more efficient than any liniment. Rub it on at night and blessed relief comes by morning. True Mustardine is made by Henry Medicine Co., Rochester, N. Y. It stops Rheumatic pains and Neuralgia almost like magic. There's a blessed relief in every rub. It stops pain and congestion.

Not in This Case.

"What did your worthy father-in-law give you for a wedding present?" asked the intimate friend.

"A clock," answered the disappointed bridegroom, who expected a check.

100 ACRES FARM IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

Three Hundred Million Bushel Crop in 1915

Farmers pay for their land with one year's crop and prosperity was never so great.

Regarding Western Canada as a grain producer, a prominent business man says: "Canada's position today is sounder than ever. There is more wheat, more oats, more grain for feed, 20% more cattle than last year and more hogs. The war market in Europe needs lands are plentiful and not far from railway lines and convenient to good business confidence to build upon, exceeding the most optimistic predictions."

Wheat averaged in 1915 over 25 bushels per acre

Oats averaged in 1915 over 45 bushels per acre

Barley averaged in 1915 over 40 bushels per acre

Prices are high, markets convenient, excellent land, low in price either improved or otherwise, ranging from $12 to $30 per acre. Free homestead lands are plentiful and not far from railway lines and convenient to good schools and churches. The climate is healthy.

There is no war tax on land, nor is there any conscription. For complete information as to best locations for settlement, reduced railroad rates and descriptive illustrated pamphlet, address:
