Quality Groceries

Having taken charge of the GROCERY business of my father, the late C. F. WHITE, I would be pleased to welcome all of his old customers and many new ones.

My aim will be for the highest quality in Groceries, Fruits, Vegetables and Canned Goods at all times, with courteous treatment and the lowest prices consistent with good merchandising.

I have also added a stock of Ladies', Gents' and Children's WEAR. YOUNG, WELL SHOES and RUBBERS.

Around the County

Mrs. Charles Hunt of Waterford fell on an icy walk one day last week and broke her left arm at the wrist.

Little Orville Mann, aged four years, living near Oxford, caught his hand in a gasoline operated pump last week, splitting the member open between the first and second fingers.

Walled Lake is furnishing good fishing these days. One day recently six pike weighing between six and seven pounds were caught, the largest of the season being caught by G. Madison, and weighed 14 pounds.

Ezra Chamberlain aged 62, a well known and highly thought of Oakland township farmer, died Wednesday morning, January 12, in the Battle Creek sanitarium, where he underwent an operation for ulcer of the stomach.

Royal Oak will vote January 25th, on the question of bonding for $40,000 to build an addition to their school building. At present there are 822 pupils and only 808 seats, and on February 1st it is estimated that there will be at least 50 more pupils to enter school.

The ballot boxes of Pontiac were ordered repaired to conform with the law, and the local option ballots of last spring's election were removed by the prosecuting attorney, in the presence of witnesses, and locked and sealed up in another box for safe keeping.

Down on His Back

"About two years ago I got down on my back," writes Solomon Bequette, Flat River, Mo. "I got a 50 cent box of Foley Kidney Pills and they straightened me up. I recommend them to all who have kidney trouble." Rheumatic aches and pains, soreness and stiffness, sleep disturbing bladder trouble, yield quickly to Foley Kidney Pills. For sale by T. H. McGee.
