Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coldren, daughter and little son of Northville visited at the home of George Rider, Sunday.

At the Grace bowling alleys Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. L. F. Schroeder killed a score of 141 and Mrs. Art Lamb 140.

Mrs. James Heeneey and children Spencer and Gladys, of Northville, visited last Sunday at the home of her son, W. E. Heeneey.

Rumor has it that a number of our confirmed bachelors have formed an alliance, and the answer this year will be 'too young.'

Mrs. H. P. Randall and little son, Leland, were in Ann Arbor, where the latter underwent treatment for a growth in the nose.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pauline were in Detroit last Sunday afternoon, and attended the "Birth of a Nation" at the Detroit opera house.

On account of the severe weather and the great amount of sickness the services at the Baptist church will be discontinued for the present.

Mrs. August Layar of Plymouth, and Mr. A. Gordon and daughter, Dorothy, of Detroit spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Meyers.

The report of the Michigan Home Insurance Co., published in another column, shows the business of the company to be in a good substantial condition.

The village was in darkness Monday night. The lights suddenly "ducked" about 9:30. A broken lead wire east of Redford put both towns in darkness for the remainder of the night.

The music for the party given next Friday night by the Harmony Club will be furnished by Turner's seven piece orchestra, which insures good music. Supper will be served by the Hester Star ladies in the Masonic banquet hall.

Publicity Agent A. D. B. Van Zandt of the D. U. R., has inaugurated a new feature in the Electric Service, that little interesting publication you get in the "take one" boxes on the interurban lines, which gives the current events along the lines as they happen from week to week.

Frank D. Wells, representing the state board of agriculture, was in the village last Thursday, trying to interest the council and town board in a campaign against the pests that afflict fruit and shade trees. A statewide campaign for the conservation of the fruit and shade trees is being organized. Mr. Wells wanted the town and village boards to appoint a "tree inspector," a state law giving them that power.

Prosecuting Attorney Doty of Pontiac, says Oakland county motorists must take out licenses despite the action of Detroit paties in appealing the law to the supreme court as unconstitutional. Mr. Doty rules that such a law is in effect at present, and must be observed until declared unconstitutional. A reasonable time will be given all to take out their license, after which prosecutions will be made.

Isaac Bond was in Pontiac on business Tuesday.

Carl Fly attended a convention of garage men and the auto show in Detroit yesterday.

Mrs. Ida Voorheis, of Detroit, visited with Mrs. Edmund Stuart, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Heeneey, last week.

The attorneys for the "wets" of Oakland county are again asking for a reversal of the order of the supervisors last spring declaring the county dry, and on Wednesday Judge Smith, of the circuit court, issued an order to show cause why the petition to compel the supervisors to declare the county wet should not be granted. The return day is February 14th. Copies of the order were served upon, each member or the board.

No, we don't want to know how old "Ann" is, but just how many beans there are in the jar at White's store.

School Notes

Final examinations next week. Several are yet absent on account of sickness.

Mrs. Fred H. Allen visited the primary room Tuesday.

Theron Pauline is absent because of being quarantined, his brother Percy, has the measles.

The second grade is having a contest in numbers. The work is in double column addition.

The primary children are enjoying the story, "Hans Brinker on Silver Skates," which is being read to them.

Some of the seventh and eighth grade pupils enjoyed a trip to Pontiac last Saturday, where they visited court, the jail, asylum and high school. They are now writing compositions describing this trip.

Mr. Purdy, of Saginaw, was here last week explaining the Purdy system of writing. This system was adopted, and will be used by every grade in the school, from the primary to the twelfth.

E. R. Fiach will bring his high school team here from Fowlerville Friday evening, January 21. Lets get a good crowd out and help the boys win. If a good crowd is not out for this game the boys will play no more home games. Some are scheduled, but as the boys are behind financially, they will be cancelled unless the people turn out.

The Farmington girls played the Wandussee girls in Solway gym, Detroit, last Friday evening, and lost by a score of 26 to 9. This was the first real game played by our home team, and they showed up very well. The feature of the game was the team work of the Wandussees, and the shooting by "Polly" Pickett, who threw two field baskets from the center of the Solway gym. A return game will be played here the first part of March.

The trip to Wayne last Tuesday evening was a farce, as far as the high school team was concerned. The game lasted only about ten minutes before a "free-for-all" was started, and Farmington refused to play longer. Nobody knows exactly how it started, but all know how it ended. During the ten minutes played the high school ran up 9 points and the Wayne Invincibles only 2. But as Farmington refused to play, the game was forfeited by a score, Wayne 2; F. H. S. 0.

It is no wonder that this team can continue to claim the championship of Michigan for a 16 and 17-year-old team, if they always try to kill their opponents in the early part of the game by slugging. The stalwart center on the Wayne team was the main cause of the trouble, and seemed to think that he could do as he pleased, but he was soon, convinced differently. The Wayne referee, instead of trying to settle things in a friendly way, began using his fists upon the Farmington H. S. players.
