No wonder! in the London market a sale of a dozen peaches ranks as a sale of a dozen peaches ranks as a cholesale transaction. And the price! The London Telegraph recently printed an article on "Cheap Fruit," in which the statement occurs that "small samples" were wort two or three shillings a dozen, but that the best fruit could be bought at 12 shillings a dozen. Think of paying a quarter for a single peach! But there were some shops that cut the price, and that would sell you a peach for three peace—six cents.—Youth's Companion.
