FORMER OAKLAND COUNTY BOY IS GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDATE.

Frank B. Leland, Who Has Shied His Hat Into the Ring, Was Born on a Farm in Rose Township, This County, Worked His Way Through College to a Commanding Position in the Business World. Makes a Strong Bid for Support.

Oakland County Republicans at the coming August primaries will likely look with much favor upon the gubernatorial candidacy of Frank B. Leland, of Detroit. The fact that he is a native of this county will command the attention of Oakland county Republicans who are invariably loyal to the "home folks."

Former Oakland County man, who has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Governor.

Leland was born on a farm in Rose town-ship, this county; in fact for a number of years has owned and operated the farm on which his boyhood was spent, so it is but natural that Oakland county should have more than a passing interest in his candidacy. "We have been proudly interested in the remarka-ble success of this former Oakland county boy in the business circles and it is a foregone conclusion that "folks back home" are going to do all they can to aid in placing him in the executive office at Lansing; for, as the Detroit News says, "There is an appeal in the record of Mr. Leland, who, as a farmer boy, worked his way through college, came to the city and achieved success."

But no one here need pin his faith on these grounds alone, for Frank B. Leland is eminently qualified for the position of governor of this great state. Experienced in finance and business, possessing educational training represented by two degrees from the state university, still retaining a warm place in his heart for the farming life and interests from which he sprung, he combines qualities seldom presented in gubernatorial candidates. As president of the United Savings Bank, of Detroit, he commands the confidence and respect of the solid business interests of the state, and as president of the Detroit Tuberculosis Sanatorium he has engaged in a war against the white state his debtor. Eight years a regent of the U. of M., handling the expenditures of millions of dollars, shows the capacity of the man as well as indicating that he has had exceptional opportunities for studying the business methods of the state and its institutions. He comes not before the public forum as an untried neophyte, but as a successful business man of practical experience.

From the standpoint of political expediency, the party which wishes to again control the reins of state government must consider Leland. He comes in the unique character of a man whom all Wayne county Republicans can combine, and with the endorsement of all the press of the metropolis a condition we cannot recall as occurring in the past. For, in harmonizing what has been long thought an impossibility.

Nor does his support seem to be dependent upon the heavy vote of the metropolis, although that is bound to be a great factor. In Wayne, he has accomplished what has been long thought an impossibility. He has a large following in the state, as evidenced when he was nominated for regent of the U. of M., despite the opposition of factional organizations in Wayne.

Leland's strong personality, varied business experience, high educational qualifications, and commendable record in public and private life will make him a mighty potent factor in the coming campaign.
"If nominated his election is assured. If elected Michigan will have a governor second to no state in the Union.—Oxford Leader.—Advertisement.

"Turn that wrapping paper the other side out," said a lady in a dry goods store this morning to a clerk putting up her purchase in a printed wrapping paper. "I don't want to be a walking advertisement of your store. I read the papers as all intelligent people ought to do, and I think in them is the place to advertise your business."
