Since coming to Farmington we have endeavored to make the Euterprise a little better each week, and we will continue along that paper one of the best in Oakland county, and with your help and co operation we will attain that goal.

Last week the Enterprise contained over four columns of locals, and some even columns of other interesting local matter, besides a good continued story and two col-umns of interesting German news for our German friends. In all we can say without exageration or boasting that last week's Enter prise was one of most interesting ever issued in this village, and yet we are far from being satisfied. We want more news, more correspondence, more co operation of those interested in the growth and prosperity of our village and surrounding territory.

Your attention is also called to the advertising columns of the McGee.
Enterprise, to the merchants who advertise. They are the "live ones," and deserve your patronage whenever possible.

Our subscription list is steadily growing, having added five new names to the list last week. If you are not now a subscriber and receive a sample copy it is an invita tion to become one of our regular

During the past few weeks we have received many renewals of subscription from those who were not paid up to date, but there are now part of others whose subscription and allowance of his far and the subscription and allowance of his far and the subscription and allowance of his far and the subscription and the subscription and allowance of his far a not paid up to date, but there are a number of others whose subscription is due, and we hope they will see that they are at least paid up to date. We have placed the date of expiration of each subscription opposite the name on the label on your paper, and if your label reads 1 July 6, your subscription is paid until July 1st 1916; if it reads 1 July 6, you are a year in arrears. While each subscription amounts to only a small sum, 50 or 100 of tion is due, and we hope they will to only a small sum, 50 or 100 of them makes quite an item, and
