MADE FINE SHOWING

Farmington Ladies at Centennial Were Outdone By None in Parade of Last Monday

The prominent feature of Woman's Day at the centennial celebration was the street parade of women's organizations, and was conceded to be the finest that Pontiac had ever had.

The Farmington delegation was not excelled by any township in the county, and was led by a large float decorated in green and white which displayed a tableau of the progress of women for a hundred years, as follows:

Spinning, knitting, the old time school mat teaching children the "Three R's," the modern college girl in cap and gown, the trained nurse, the business woman operating a typewriter at her desk, and finally the suffragist of 1916, demanding votes for women, were all appropriately demonstrated.

There were also six beautifully decorated cars, representing as many local organizations, in the parade.

The Ladies' Literary club had a white car decorated with garlands of green studded with red carnations the club colors and flower; the occupants of the car carrying white parasols wreathed with the green and red.

The Ladies' Aid of Salem (German) church, had a beautiful white car, surmounted with the "Bow of Promise" in rainbow colors, and carrying a banner with the name of the church in gold letters.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church, a white car with pink garlands.

The Ladies' Union of the Universalist church, a white car with a canopy and streamers of blue and white, the colors of the Young People's Christian Union and their motto, "The Brotherhood of Man."

The Ladies' Library association also had a white car decorated with orange fringe and pictures illustrating the various branches of literature, and carried orange parasols.

The car representing the Ladies' Cemetery Improvement association was a beautiful one, in white lilies, white and lavender chrysanthemums, with green leaves.

Mrs. Gildemeister's family car was decorated in pink, white and lavender, and Mrs. Ford Westphal's in green, white and gold, Mrs. Amos Otis' car was in red and white, with flags and banners.

The Ladies' Auxillary of North Farmington had four cars having green and white plumes, and banners giving date of organization (1904), and amount raised to date ($224).

The Mystic Workers of East Farmington had a car decorated with plumes and banners in green and gold.

It is to be remembered that while the display for this occasion was ornamental it represented organizations of hard workers for local improvements and good citizenship.

Horrors of War.

Which will be presented to patrons of Alseum Theatre Tuesday, September 5th, are among the best pictures shown in this village.

These pictures were taken by Pathe's special camera man on the firing lines, were shown to Henry Ford, and were the direct cause of his, keeping up his fight for peace. You will enjoy this picture Tuesday evening, September 5th.

State Fair Lists and Tickets.

We have copies of the premium list for the Michigan State Fair for 1916. They will be passed out to subscribers of the Enterprise who call at this office for them, as long as they last.

TICKETS

We also have state fair tickets for sale. A regular 50-cent ticket, admitting the holder into the fair grounds at only 35 cents each, or three for one dollar. These tickets cannot be purchased elsewhere at less than 50 cents each and are worth 50 cents each in Detroit. Buy your tickets here and avoid the rush at the gate, besides getting three for two. Last year the Enterprise accommodated its subscribers with these tickets and hundreds were pleased to get them, and will now take advantage of the sale again this year.

We procured an extra lot this year, as we understand a number were disappointed a year ago, the tickets running out before all were supplied. The sale ends September 1st, and after that date you will have to pay 50 cents each if you go to Michigan's big fair.

Our supply is going fast, and will undoubtedly be exhausted before that date, so come in and get yours.

On Wednesday the Lake Orion marine service carried on his forenoon trip the largest mail of the season—over 400 pieces of first class matter. This would be cottage mail and as the electric people would say it was the "peak load" indicating that the largest cottage population of this and past seasons is now at our lake.—Orion Review.

The hot wave was too much for the stock of Ray A. Butler, the local egg dealer in Imaly city. Tuesday morning he heard a suspicious noise in a pile of cases of "strictly fresh." The noise was located in a particular case which was opened up. Inside was found three live chickens just out of the shell, one just coming through and several other eggs chipped from the inside. Hatching eggs require a temperature of about 102 degrees.—Oxford Leader.

JOHN R. WALTERS

Village Treasurer.

Assistant Prosecutor Glenn C. Gillespie is Entitled to Promotion.

Should Get Your Vote next Tuesday.

BECAUSE: He has made good as Assistant Prosecutor for the past four years and is entitled to promotion.

He has been, and now is, in full charge of the Prosecutors office, and is fully qualified for performing the duties of that important office.

As Assistant Prosecutor he has assisted in the handling of over 3,000 criminal cases, including the preparation and trial of all cases handled by the Prosecutors office in the Circuit and Supreme Court, and in the collection of over $22,000 in fines and costs paid to County Treasurer.

He and Prosecutor Doty have handled more important cases in the Circuit and Supreme Court during the past four years than have appeared in any similar period in the history of Oakland County.

He is not controlled by any faction or interest and will give the office the same careful, conscientious, businesslike administration that it has had during the four years he has been Assistant Prosecutor.

He is now demonstrating the kind of an official he will make—you do not need to try an experiment.

During the time he has been in charge of the Prosecutors office he has instituted a method of quick arraignment and disposal of criminals who wish to plead guilty in Circuit Court, and a method of handling petty complaints by notifying parties complained against to appear at his office instead of issuing warrants in the first instance, thereby saving considerable expense to the County.

He is now engaged in preparing for trial at the September term of the Circuit Court some of the most important cases handled by the Prosecutors office in recent years. He is an Oakland County boy who has made his own way from the bottom up through various handicaps.

He has never been a candidate for any office before.—adv.

Judge Smith's Opinion.

About fifteen years ago J. Arthur Tillson, now a Republican candidate for Prosecuting Attorney of this county, tried his first important case in our Circuit Court, and in the course of the proceedings, the court records show that Judge Smith remarked in open court as follows:

"I wish to say that in my opinion Mr. Tillson has started right. He is trying this case alone, and I predict if he pursues the same course, that in a few years he will become one of the best lawyers at this bar. He is here alone and has not called in some old attorney to try this case before you but has come into this court and faced the jury and tried the case himself. That is the way to learn to become a practicing lawyer and I feel like complementing him."

Since Mr. Tillson has tried many cases in our county, other counties of the state and in sister states; and as the Editor of the Royal Oak Tribune says, "His record has proved the metal that's in him." This man never acquired the habit of leaning on others, and if he is Prosecuting Attorney, there will be no factious interests, or man higher up, to be consulted in the conduct of the office.—adv.

O. H. P. Green one of Oakland County's Best.

In these days of clever criminals, Oakland County should have the best possible man available for Sheriff. O. H. P. Green is no novice or experimenter in dealing with criminals. He has had ten years experience as detective. His very efficient services as Under Sheriff during the past three and one-half years is sufficient evidence of his fitness for the sheriff's office. Mr. Green is a man—staunch, true, honest and honorable. His dealings are always open and above board and subject to explanation at any time to the people he is serving. He is recognized in other cities as one of the ablest men in the field of detecting criminals. As a matter of business economy and efficiency, the Republicans can do no better than to nominate and the voters to elect Mr. O. H. P. Green for Sheriff.—adv.

Charles S. Matthews a Life-Long Republican—Has Worked for Others.

As the primary campaign draws to a close I wish to take this last opportunity of calling the attention of the voters of Oakland County to my candidacy for the nomination to the office of Prosecuting Attorney on the Republican ticket.

I have been a Republican ever since I was able to vote, and have taken great interest in the different campaigns in the county during the past twelve years. With the exception I have asked for nothing for myself, and have devoted considerable time and effort toward helping the Republican candidate to get elected.

Six years ago I was a candidate for the nomination for Prosecuting Attorney, but at that time did not receive sufficient votes. If at the present the voters of the Republican party feel that it is my turn, and that I am entitled to the nomination I shall be pleased to receive their support. Should I fail of the nomination I shall still continue to work for the election of the ticket in the fall campaign.

I have no malice toward anyone, and do not wish to be known as the candidate of any faction.

If nominated and elected I promise the people of Oakland County the benefit of the experience gained in the six years as Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, and of another six years spent in private practice, and to the best of my ability will give a businesslike administration of the office and an impartial enforcement of the law.

RECORD SHOWS TOWNSEND FOR CANADIAN RECIPROCIITY

M. B. McPherson, of Lowell, Mich., raises the question whether the records bear out the charge that Senator Townsend voted for Canadian reciprocity in 1911, when the Michigan farmers were fearful their markets would go glimmering under the inrush of Dominion products.

The Detroit times wired its Washington correspondent for the official version of the Michigan Senator's attitude on the question, and received this reply:

Townsend voted for Canadian reciprocity; Smith voted against it. Afterward Townsend made a speech in which he said he had made a mistake in voting for it.

At the time the Canadian reciprocity measure was under discussion in Washington, a committee from Michigan went there. This committee was composed of the following: Ex-governor Fred M. Warner; P. R. Waterbury, editor of the Michigan Farmer; President Snyder, Michigan Agricultural College; D. A. Holden, president State Association Farmers clubs; N. P. Hull, master State Grange; Senator Herbert Powell, Ionia, Mich.; C. E. Bassett, Fennville, Mich.; James H. McBride, Burton, Mich.; Clark R. Reed, Howell, Mich.

This committee had a hearing before the senate finance committee, and also waited upon Senator Townsend. The manifold disadvantages to the farmers of Michigan from the Canadian reciprocity bill were presented by them to Senator Townsend in all its phases. Senator Townsend was non-committal, but afterwards voted in favor of the Canadian reciprocity bill.—Farmington Times.
