THE GOVERNORSHIP

There are four candidates for the nomination for governor on the Republican ticket at the primaries next Tuesday—Leland, Sleeper, Dickema and Gardner. A month ago it was conceded that Sleeper's prospects were in the lead, but during the past few weeks Leland, Gardner and Dickema, through their ability at speech making, have made large gains, the withdrawal of Dickinson from the race seeming to have given Mr. Leland a big advantage. He is said to have the solid support of Wayne county, a condition not often accorded any man for high office.

Mr. Leland is an Oakland county farmer boy who has made good—good not only with his farm, but also in the business world and in the social and professional life of the great state as well.

He is twice a graduate of the U. of M., and his philanthropic work among the poorer people and working classes of the big city, his free open air school for the tuberculosis affected children, has brought his name more prominently before the people than any other candidate. His name to day is a household word, all over the country wherever the dread tubercular disease has been fought, for he gave to this nation its first school of the kind. Mr. Leland is a man who has done things. He is just the type of a man that Michigan has been looking for for the high office. A man that the whole state will be proud of.

Tin Cans.

In olden days, the which I praise as warmly, as I'm able, we raised our beans and other greens, out back behind the stable. A garden plot behind his cot, each man in augured, and there he'd raise the peas and maize, and vines with pumpkins weighted. There dad would toil, and slug the soil, his busy boys around him. This good old plan by modern man, no more, alas, is followed; but at the store he blows his ore for every thing that's swallowed. He used to pluck the garden truck, and eat it fresh and juicy, and there was lots for all the tots, for Jake and Bill and Lucy. His grocer's bill then didn't kill, it was no grief to meet it; his bill of fare was rich and rare, and no hotel could beat it. In those old days the poorest Jaws set up the best of tables; but now man eats his greens and beets from cans with gaudy labels.—ANON.

From Newsboy Has Climbed by Own Efforts

J. Arthur Tillson

The Editor of the Royal Oak Tribune is mindful of the struggle of our self-made presidents, Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Jackson, when he says of Mr. Tillson he "is surely a self-made man." He says further of Mr. Tillson, "He published papers to pay his way through the graded school, worked in a grocery store, then in a drug store and by private study passed the examination of the State Board of Pharmacy at 15 years of age. By means of private study he also mastered law sufficiently to pass the examination of the State Board of Law examiners, and was admitted to the bar, and now enjoys a good business in that profession in Pontiac. His record has proved the metal that's in him."

Strong Candidate.

J. Arthur Tillson, of Pontiac, who is one of the candidates for the republican nomination as prosecuting attorney, is a man who would bring to the office all the qualifications necessary for a faithful performance of the many duties connected with it. His extended court practice, and his general acquaintance with the duties of the office make him an admirable man for the place. In his hands the office of prosecutor of our county would be looked after in a manner that would tend to the greatest good.—Herald, adv.

Republican Candidate FOR SHERIFF

WILLIAM H. HILL

Candidate for the Republican Nomination for United States Senator August 29th.

William H. Hill, of Detroit, who has tossed his hat into the ring for the nomination for United States Senator from Michigan on the Republican ticket, has a political message for the people that it would be well to heed.

Primaries Tuesday, August 29

If nominated it is my ambition to conduct a clean campaign, and if elected, to continue to serve the people to the best of my ability and experience, giving a fair, business-like administration of the duties of the office, and giving my whole time and attention to every branch of the work.

As previously stated, I believe the best protection to the public and the greatest economy to the taxpayers in the long run is in unearthing crime and bringing law violators to justice.

With the above promise, I respectfully solicit your support.

O. H. P. GREEN

For the Family Medicine Chest

Green Day, Wis., Mrs. Wm. F. Doyle says: "I always use Foley's Kidney and Tar for our children as it quickly breaks up their colds with no bad after effects, and they like to take it." In this season of coughs, colds and croup, every family medicine chest should have on hand a good course of such a remedy as can be relied upon when needed. Such a family cough syrup is Foley's Kidney and Tar Compound. This standard medicine has been on the market for years and in many cases has been found in every home. It is an excellent medicine for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. It is an absolutely safe remedy, containing only healing ingredients, and free from any harmful drugs.

A MAN WITH A POLITICAL MESSAGE FOR THE PEOPLE

WILLIAM H. HILL

Candidate for the Republican Nomination for United States Senator August 29th.

William H. Hill, of Detroit, who has tossed his hat into the ring for the nomination for United States Senator from Michigan on the Republican ticket, has a political message for the people that it would be well to heed.

Mr. Hill's long experience in the administration of large business affairs has given him a new conception of the viewpoint and the duties of office.

A close study of government affairs has convinced him that there is but one course to pursue in a Federal office. That is, to base every act on the fact that running a government is a business proposition for business men of experience and judgment.

He believes that the government of the United States should be regarded as a great corporation in which the citizens of this country are the stockholders; and that the Senate and the House of Representatives constitute the "Board of Directors" of this corporation.

He believes that the members of the "board" should represent all the people all the time and not a favored few; and that the people should always be able to tell where their "directors" stand.

He asked: "Have the people of Michigan, the past few years, been able to tell where their senators stood, or where to find them?"

Mr. Hill is well fitted for the office he seeks and to realize his conception of its duties. Years of arduous training in the business world, wide travel in this and foreign countries and close study of history and government have given him exceptional equipment for the task. Thirty-one years of his life have been spent in Detroit where he is a successful manufacturing druggist, conducting one of the largest concerns of its kind in the country. A Good Platform to Stand On—to Act On.

Here are the all-inclusive and progressive principles on which William H. Hill is basing his campaign: 100% Americanism and national security.

Improvement of labor conditions. Protection of women and children. Conservation of national resources. A stable foundation for honorable enterprise.

Rescuing commerce from uncertainty. Establishing a non-partisan tariff commission whose work shall be conducted on scientific and efficient lines.

Mr. Hill urges you to come out at the primaries August 29th. It is only by exercising your privileges at the Primaries that you can secure a new deal. Put an X before the name of William H. Hill August 29th.

STATE OF MICHIGAN. IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF OAKLAND, IN CHANCERY.

Albert Roscoe, Plaintiff, vs.

Charles Collins, Minerva Beebe, Laura Durham, Julia M. Durham, Charles I. Collins, James Harvey Collins, Charles Revilo Collins, George Carswell, Jr., Peter Dix, and the unknown Wife of David Maiden, or the unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of each and every of them, Defendants.

At a session of said court, held at the court house in the city of Pontiac, on the 10th day of July, A. D. 1916.
Present: Honorable George W. Smith, Circuit Judge.

In this cause it appearing to the satisfaction of the court from the sworn bill of complaint, that the defendants hereto have some apparent claim, title, interest, or possible right to the premises described in said bill of complaint, and hereinafter described, and said plaintiff averring that all the title, claims, liens, or possible rights of the said defendants and each of them, are barred by continuous, open, notorious, exclusive, adverse and peaceable possession of said plaintiff and their grantors for more than twenty-five years last past and for more than twenty-five years since the several rights to the possession thereof accrued in said respective defendants, and that said possession has been for all of said time, and still is adverse and hostile to the title, claim, interests, liens, or possible rights of said respective defendants, and that the plaintiff does not know and that it could not be ascertained after diligent search and inquiry, whether said named defendants are living or dead or where they reside if living or whether their title, interest, claims, liens, or possible rights, if any have been assigned to any person or persons, or if dead, whether they have personal representatives or heirs living, or where they are, or any of them may reside, or whether said title, interest, claim, lien, or possible right has been disposed of by will, and it appearing, that all of said parties, or their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of each and every of them, are proper and necessary parties to this cause, to wit: said defendants, to wit: Charles Collins, Minerva Beebe, Laura Durham, Julia M. Durham, Charles I. Collins, James Harvey Collins, Charles Revilo Collins, George Carswell, Jr., Peter Dix, and the unknown Wife of David Maiden, or the unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of each and every of them be entered in this cause within three months from the date of this order and that in case of such appearance each defendant so appearing shall cause his or her answer to the said bill of complaint to be filed in this court, and a copy thereof served upon plaintiff's attorneys within fifteen days after service upon him or her of a copy of said bill of complaint, and that in default of such appearance or answer as a bill shall be taken as confessed by the said defendants and each and every of them so in default, and

It is FURTHER ORDERED, that within twenty days from the date hereof said plaintiff cause a copy of this order to be published in the Farmington Enterprise, a newspaper printed, published and circulated in the county of Oakland, and that the publication thereof shall continue therein once in each week for six successive weeks.

GEORGE W. SMITH, Circuit Judge

Countersigned: MAUDE B. MCGEE, Deputy Clerk.
