

HUSBAND OBJECTS TO OPERATION

Wife Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Des Moines, Iowa.—"Four years ago I was very sick and my life was nearly spent. The doctors stated that I would never get well without an operation and that without it I would not live one year. My husband objected to any operation and got me some of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and commenced to get better and am now well, am stout and able to do my own housework. I can recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman who is sick and run down as a wonderful strength and health restorer. My husband says I would have been in my grave and this if it had not been for your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. BLANCH JEFFERSON, 703 Lyon St., Des Moines, Iowa.

Before submitting to a surgical operation it is wise to try to build up the female system and cure its derangements with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it has saved many women from surgical operations.

Had Cause for Wrath.

"I am not surprised that it put the man out of temper," said Magistrate Fordham to a woman who applied for process against a man who smashed her window, because a phonograph was playing in her house at ten o'clock at night.

"It is a most vexing and troublesome noise," added his worship, "and it is a wonder he did not smash 20 windows."—London Globe.

Lure of the Rural.

"Can you find servants who will go into the country?"

"Yes, but only when we're living in the city and the picnic season is on."

A New Jersey inventor has patented a garden tool that can be used as a rake, weeder or shovel.

Why That Lame Back?

Morning lameness, sharp twinges when bending, or an all-day back-ache; each is cause enough to suspect kidney trouble. Get after the cause. Help the kidneys. We Americans go it too heavy. We overdo, overeat and neglect our sleep and exercise and so we are fast becoming a nation of kidney sufferers. 725 more deaths than in 1890 is the 1910 census story. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Thousands recommend them.

A Michigan Case

William Hough, 511 Sherman St., Ealing, Mich., says: "I had kidney trouble after I left the army and I kept getting worse. The kidney secretions were painful and too frequent in passage and had lumbar and rheumatic pains. My limbs were so stiff I had to be helped around. Medicine failed and I had almost given up hope when I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured me."

Two-Color Blouse of Crepe.

One of those new blouses in which georgette crepe in two colors is combined has several points of interest for the seeker after new things in waists. The two-color idea was successfully introduced in the spring and has the endorsement of women of fashion. It gives designers a chance to exercise a great amount of cleverness in embodying both colors in the body of the garment, and in carrying out the color scheme in embroideries, buttons and ornaments.

The blouse shown is of white and navy blue georgette crepe. A band of the navy blue crepe is set in about the armholes and it is used to make the wide cuffs and the collar.

Small pendant silk-covered buttons are placed down each side of the front, and they are sewed to a pink near the armholes. They are in navy blue silk, suspended by small white silk cord.

The waist sets nicely and is bloused over the top of the skirt a very little. Hemstitching serves to join the two colors in crepe, together.

The blouse possesses two style features that are new and especially interesting. The neck is round and finished with a narrow band of white crepe. The collar, of blue crepe, is cut circular and in two pieces, making a narrow crescent-shaped cape at the back and front. It fastens on the left shoulder and is edged with very fine point Venice lace.

The deep cuffs of blue are smart and very practical, as they do not soil as easily as white. Fragile and dainty as crepe looks, it is in reality a durable material if given the care it deserves. The light colors wash well and may be retinted when they begin to fade.

Pretty Party Frocks for Girls.

There are many pretty frocks on display for members of the primary class in the school of social wisdom, and they are calculated to develop her taste. By the time she arrives at the "dinner" stage, with a mind of her own as to clothes, she will know something about party frocks, anyway.

There are many dresses for the little miss, made of plain and changeable taffeta in light colors. And there are others of crepe of chiffon much beruffled. Some of them are short-waisted, some of them are long-waisted, and others have no waist at all. All of them barely reach to the knees and their sleeves are as brief as their skirts.

Necks are round or square, and a little sleeveless belt in several good designs is worn over a dainty underbody with sleeves, made of tulle or lace, in narrow ruffles, set close together on a net foundation.

A new idea is successfully carried out when taffeta is the material used. Short-waisted dresses, or slips without a waistline, are trimmed with several rows of narrow ruffles of the silk about the bottom of the skirt and on the sleeves. These ruffles are sewed to the frock along their lower edge—that is they are upside down.

Other styles may come and go, but the pretty lingerie frock for the little miss refuses to go at all. Here is one of the latest creations for a little girl, it is made of French batiste and is trimmed with narrow Valenciennes lace and a little tulle embroidery. The long waist has a front panel of five tucks, and when it is set into the side body a full edge of lace is set on. Similar frills finish the neck and sleeves.

The short skirt is laid in due plaits and trimmed at the bottom with insertion and edging of Valenciennes lace.

The grille is made of wide soft satin ribbon laid in plaits. At each side there are double rosettes with hanging ends of baby ribbon in the same tint as the grille. Little bows are tied in the ends of the pendant ribbons. The grille slips through a strap of batiste at the back and fastens under one at the front. It is tucked to the dress at each side, under the rosettes.

Pretty Lingerie.

Dainty lingerie is made of soft, white poosie, trimmed with bands of delicate lace, and lined with blue linen laces.

The KITCHEN CABINET

So long as our common humanity is so frail it will be necessary for men to keep forgiving, cancelling debts, swallowing offended pride.—Frank Crane.

SOUTHERN RICE DISHES.

Rice is one of our most easily digested foods, is reasonably cheap, and should be more often served.

Rice Stuffing for Fowls.—Brown one's chopped onion in a tablespoonful of butter, and mix with four cups of boiled rice and a cupful of bread crumbs that have been moistened in milk. Season with sage, parsley or any herbs desired; add half a pound of sausage meat or finely chopped pork; salt and pepper to taste.

Rice Griddle Cakes.—Boil half a cupful of rice; when cold mix one quart of sweet milk, the yolks of four eggs and flour to make a stiff batter; beat the whites to a froth, stir in a teaspoonful of soda and two of cream of tartar, add salt and fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs. Bake on a hot griddle; spread while hot with marmalade; sprinkle with sugar and serve at once.

Rice Croquettes.—Scald a pint of milk in a double boiler; add a half a cupful of well-washed rice. Cook until thick; add the yolks of two eggs, half a teaspoonful of salt, and two tablespoonfuls of sugar. Remove from the heat, beat smooth; add half a teaspoonful of vanilla or the grated rind of half a lemon. A bay leaf cooked with the rice adds a fine seasoning, which may be removed when the desired flavor is reached. Spread on a flat dish and allow to chill. Sugar may be omitted if not liked.

Rice With Eggs.—Put two tablespoonfuls of salt, a tablespoonful of onion, and a half cupful of rice into a saucepan; stir and cook until the rice is yellow, then add a cupful of stock of any kind, and when the rice is tender stir in two or three eggs; when the eggs are cooked serve at once. Season with salt and paprika. This is a dish that is especially appetizing, makes a few eggs serve for four or five, and is so economical.

Any cold rice may be stirred into any muffin or gem batter, or rice improves griddle cakes. With thin cream or top milk it is an ideal supper for children, plain boiled, seasoned with salt.

We all know we cannot always make ourselves well, but we can do so to keep ourselves well.—Sir John Lubbock.

SOME PEACH WAYS.

Peaches baked like apples are a delicious dessert. Place them in a shallow pan, sprinkle with a little sugar, a few drops of lemon and bits of butter, with a grating of nutmeg. They may be baked whole or in halves with the pits removed.

A half of a peach placed on a square of sponge cake or angel food soaked with fruit sirup and topped with ice cream or whipped cream is a dessert well liked.

Peaches sliced and mixed with marshmallows and sweetened whipped cream is another well liked dessert.

Glorified Peaches and Cream.—Peel and cut each peach in half, remove the pits and put a little marshmallow and a teaspoonful of sugar on each; let stand for an hour or two until the fruit has absorbed it, then arrange the peaches around a bowl of sweetened and flavored whipped cream.

Peach Salad.—Peel and cut each peach in half, remove the pits and arrange on nests of lettuce; fill with dressing and chopped nut meats. For the dressing use two tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar, one of lemon juice, one of celery salt, salt and paprika to taste, five drops of tabasco, four tablespoonfuls of olive oil and two tablespoonfuls of vinegar.

Peach Compote With Peach Sauce.—Scald two cupfuls of milk in a double boiler and add one-half cupful of farina, gradually, stirring constantly. When the mixture thickens, add a fourth of a cupful of sugar, one-half teaspoonful of salt and cook 20 minutes; then add the whites of the eggs, beaten stiff. Turn into slightly buttered shallow pan. Remove the skins from six peaches, put into a saucepan a half cupful of sugar and a quarter cupful of water, cover and cook the fruit until soft. Cut the farina into squares, put a peach on each square and pour the peach sauce over all.

Peach Sauce.—Mix half a tablespoonful of cornstarch with one tablespoonful of water; add to the sirup in the pan and cook five minutes, stirring constantly; add two yolks, beaten thick, two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice and a dash of salt.

Strawberry Shrub.—A delicious frozen dish when it is possible to serve one at a picnic, is this: Take a quart of canned or fresh strawberries, put through a cloth and add one quart of water to the juice; add a half cupful of lemon juice, sugar to taste and freeze to a soft mush, then add a cupful of cream and finish freezing.
