CHURCH NOTES

Universalist Church

Rev. Willis A. Moore was out from Detroit Sunday, preaching in the Universalist church. The sermon was as usual very helpful and our friends will be glad to know that in three weeks Rev. Moore will be with us again.

Baptist Church.

Church at 10:30 a. m. Sunday school 11:30 a. m., and evening service at 7:30.

Another enjoyable time was participated in by the ladies attending the Dorcas society last Tuesday afternoon, at the pleasant home of Mrs. Eisenlord.

Twenty ladies were present, ready with thimbles and needles for sewing. As it was an all day meet, several went in the forenoon, but the majority came after dinner and had 5 o'clock lunch.

Mrs. Willver and Mrs. L. Haber mehl led the devotional hour. Mesdames Habermehl and Conroy sang a duet. Discussion on the "Fear of the Lord" decided that fear meant love, instead of the usual definition. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Forest Green Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Pickett will lead the devotional hour.

Methodist Church

REV. JAMES PRIESTLEY, MINISTER.

The morning hours of worship are times of spiritual uplift. Next Sunday morning the pastor will bring a message of helpfulness. You need the inspiration of these morning hours of worship.

Last Sunday morning was a time of great blessing at the Sunday school session. The attendance was fine; let us make it even better next Sunday. - Everybody invited.

You will need to come early to service Sunday evening. Last Sunday evening was a record Sunday evening. We expect it to be larger. Every man in the community should be present to hear the pastor speak on the theme, "Is it Nothing to You?" It will be a discussion of the Prohibition issue.

The prayer meetings Thursday evenings are seasons of blessing. There is a place for you.

The meeting held last week for young people, and addressed by Miss Alice M. Gamlin, was well attended and was a real help to all. There were a goodly number of decisions.

Clinton McGee to Speak.

Saturday night, November 4th, Attorney Clinton McGee, of Pontiac will speak on "Home Rule and Prohibition" at the Town Hall.

Mr. McGee is known by everyone in this vicinity, being a former Farmington boy, and is admitted as one of the best posted and able speakers on the prohibition question of anyone in the county, and it will pay you to hear him, no matter what your opinion may be regarding the question of home rule or state-wide prohibition.

The Farmington band will furnish music for the occasion.

Notice

Be sure and come to the Big Dinner, given by the Cemetery Association at the I. O. O. F. hall November 7th.

Some Difference,

The wet advertisements displayed everywhere are paid for by huge sums of money donated by the booze man and the saloonkeeper, to benefit themselves.

The dry ads are paid for by donations from people to benefit all of us. Note the difference. - Adv.

Progressive peddle was the main pastime. Mrs. Hitchcock won first ladies' prize, Mrs. Luza Smith, second; R. Botsford, first gentleman's and Leon Green second.
A fine lunch was served, and the guests dispersed, leaving orders for Herman to ship a number of boxes of oranges and other Californian sweets, and also the request that the family return in the spring.
Our Prosperity.
The war prosperity now existing,
which the Democrats hope to get credit for, is on account of two billion of dollars in exports of war
materials, last year to the Allies,
such as cartridges, forty millions of dollars in gun powder, one hundred and forty-seven million in grenades,
three hundred eleven millions in large guns, one hundred twenty-seven millions in bayonets, an increase of thirty-four millions, war auto seventy-five millions, and many other items. Prosperity without a war to bolster it up, always copies and stays in the Republican rule and laws. The very opposite under Democratic rule. Adv.
