Where the crowds rub elbows, the polite man is now too othen one who has something to sell. He is suave, bind, concilitory, and complimentary, and it is an axiom in business that the poorer the article, the smoother hust be the salesman. A grotesque stimution—this assumption of the unnatural for a purpose clearly visible to the one it is desired to induce to the one it is desired to induce —often by the concealment of truth—Alan Southern in Harper's Magazine.

A beginner on a brund-new golf course was having a particularly ring experience on a hole laid experience on a hole laid experience on a hole laid cowed field. When he did not the high the ground bein position with he hit the ground bein position with cold, professional eye, remarked to his companion "My word! It wouldn't cost him much if he was playin' with new-field eggs!"

Mother Went Down Foot.
"Mother, how does anlt grow?"
asked Katherine. Mother, who was not up on the subject of minerals, and
not wishing to show her ignorance,
said: "Now what is the use of asking about it. Why not plant some and find out?"

Beatan.

"Jimson is beginning to show his age a great deal, don't you think?"

"Yes, but it isn't at all surprising. All he has done for the last ten years is to try to kill time, and it looks as if Time had ruther the better of the argument."

Always Remove Splinter.
"If you get a splinter of wood in your hand always take it out immediately." cautions a medical authority. "Some kinds of wood are especially poisonous to some people—the California redwood for example. Delay may cause a sore hand for several days, or even more serious discomfort."

d. Mr. X., the London subcultor, was basked to write an article on supersti-tion and imbedility. When the article was printed the opening sentence was found to be as follows: "That imbe-cility is not on the wane perusal of the following lines will amply demon-
