The Cost is Double

Bread bought from the store costs nearly double what it costs to do the baking at home. Here are the figures showing the ingredients:

Flour, 195 pounds; Salt, 3 2667 pounds; Sugar, 6,533 pounds;
 Lard, 3 2667 pounds; Yeast, 4 5773 pounds; Water, 119.56 pounds. Total, 333.20 pounds, making 333 loaves of 16 ozs. each

The annual dinner and supper given by the Farmington Cemetery association was by far the most successful financially and socially of any of the previous affairs of the association. Notwithstanding the high prices of all provision the people have never responded so generously, the proceeds of the day, together with some donations, amounting to nearly $85.00. The committee wish to extend most hearty thanks to all those who helped to make the day so great a success.

Mrs. Roseby Botsford and son Thomas, spent Saturday in Detroit. Fine fall weather.

C. H. Ely's car of potatoes arrived Tuesday.

Mrs. M. A. Doherty called on her brother, G. A. McGee, Thursday in Detroit and also attended the Missionary convention at the Grand River M. E. church.

Mrs. Will Noble and little son, Frankie, of Detroit, and her brother Louis Robinson, of Grand Blanc, visited last Monday with their sister, Mrs. Kenneth Lord and husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Bradford and Mrs. Brewer, of Pontiac, called on Mrs. A. McGee Saturday afternoon, and attended the prohibition lecture given by Clint McGee in the evening at the Town Hall.

Ladies interested in missionary work will bear in mind the meeting to be held at the M. E. parsonage November 23rd, when Mrs. Williamson, of Detroit, will be present for the purpose of organizing a missionary circle. All are most cordially invited to be present; also bring a friend with you and help make it a success.

Friday afternoon as Paul and Stanley Thomas were starting for home in their auto the turn was made at the corner of Grand River and Warner avenue in such a way as to strike the cable which stayed the telephone pole, bending the steering gear. The trouble was slight however, and after a short delay they resumed their homeward way.

One of the largest crowds seen in many a day assembled at the Town Hall last Saturday evening to listen to Clinton McGee, and his address was one worth hearing, whether you were in accord with his opinion or not. The M. E. church was also crowded Sunday night, when Rev. J. S. Priestly, pastor of the church, gave a most convincing and interesting address. The Methodist church choir also furnished excellent music on both occasions. At the former meeting the farmington band also furnished music.

Prices Soaring

and many articles are unobtainable at an cost. This is the condition today and indications all point to still greater advances for another year

SHOES

Leather, labor, etc., have advanced so that GOOD SHOES must be priced higher than heretofore. Select the "Keith Conqueror" and you get the same satisfying service, comfort and style as always $4, $4.50 and $5.00

Sweaters, Toques, Underwear and Caps

Our new winter lines of the above goods have arrived, and you are respectfully invited to call and examine them. We wish especially to call your attention to our line of "VISOR SWEATERS." They are splendid garments, well made and moderately priced.

OUR UNDERWEAR for Men, Women and Children is an exceptionally strong line. The majority of this Underwear was purchased early in the year for delivery this fall, and before the prices had advanced to such an extent that, were we to buy now, we would have to advance the price 25 per cent. The quality is the very best for the price—25c per garment to $4.00 per suit.

Our stock of "PURITAN" CAPS for Men and Boys is very complete, at the same old prices—50c and $1.00.

GROCERIES

Don't lose track of the fact that ours is one of the largest stocks in town. Our Tens are winners at 35c and 50c. Try our Coffees at 25c, 30c, 35c and 38c. Our Canned Peas are fine, at 13c, 15c and 18c.

Catsup is going to cost money this winter, because of the disappointing tomato crop. Buy ours at 15c and 20c per bottle.

Cooler weather creates an appetite for SOUPS. We have a good supply of Campbell's Soups at 13c, or 2 cans for 25c.

Try Our Sardines in Mustard and Tomato Sauce

Macaroni and Spaghetti are cheap compared with other things. Try them.

"Trade" says: "At present prices of canned Kraut, there's nothing in retailing it at even fifteen cents." But we're selling it at that, anyway.
