Jesse Weir, wife and two little girls, Maude and Jessie, were Sunday guests of Rue Langbecker and family.

Mrs. Gus Eusch spent last week in Detroit, helping care for her mother, who is very ill, and quite an aged lady.
Miss Jennie Hazen, of Walled Lake, who is employed at the John Lapham home, is visiting at the former place this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen, accompanied by William Pauline, wife and daughter Isabelle, were Detroit visitors Thursday.

Miss Mary Kennedy and mother entertained George Hendryx, wife and son Leo, and Charles Steele and family Thanksgiving.
Mrs. Minnie Wilber, accompanied by her nephew, C. W. Wilber and wife, were Thanksgiving guests of their cousins, Mrs. Hodge and the two Misses Hartsough, at Plymouth.
Sunday Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hambleton and Jeannette; also the latter's grandfather, James Courroy, accompanied by Louis Thayer, wife and baby, were entertained at the parental home of Mrs. Thayer—William Waite at Novi.

A. B. Petersen has been taking out a number of dead trees and cleaning up the Town Hall lawn, which is quite an improvement. The park around the hall is one of Farmington's beauty spots, and one of which all are proud.
Asa Lyons, manager of the Monumental works at Plymouth, had his hand badly smashed by being kicked by a horse Monday night while in this vicinity, and was obliged to have the wound dressed before returning to his home.

Prof. R. H. Huffman, wife and baby went to Brown City Wednesday afternoon, where they ate Thanksgiving dinner with her sister and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Waltz. They will also visit in Port Huron and Yale before returning Sunday evening.

As we are about going to press word comes to us of the death of Mrs. Alice Way at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. L. Cook. Mrs. Way had been ill only a few days. Funeral services will be held at the M. E. church at 2:30 Saturday afternoon. Friends wishing to view the remains are requested to call at the F. L. Cook home.
Mr. and Mrs. Abbie Phelps have become residents of Farmington for the winter, and are making their home with his mother, Mrs. A. H. Phelps. Wednesday evening the family attended the Thanksgiving entertainment given by the Nichols school, where Miss Helen Phelps has been attending. "On Monday she will take up her studies at the Farmington school."

Mrs. D. Stearns was in Pontiac Monday.
Mrs. A. Conn was a Detroit caller Monday.
Mr. Ruteubar, who is ill, remains about the same.

Mrs. William Van Alstyne entertained at Thanksgiving dinner, Mrs. Mary Osmus, Mr. McDermott, Mr. and Mrs. Willaver and William Chamberlain wife and little boy; and on Sunday Mrs. Holdershaw was her guest.

The "Cobbler had a gobbler" sent him from Kalkaska—at least that is what C. H. Myers tells us. A card received from his brother-in-law, Hyda Drake stated this fact. It certainly is a nice present for Thanksgiving day.
Miss Viola Owen entertained the Young Ladies' club Wednesday afternoon, seven members and six guests being present. Games, music and a general good time were followed by an elaborate 6 o'clock dinner, served in the dining room of the Owen House.

The North Farmington Auxiliary's chicken pie dinner and bazaar held at Lemuel Power's home last week was a great success. Ninety-one people were there, the dinner netting $13, and the bazaar $25. A number from here were in attendance.
Mrs. Gladys Isaminger, of Gaylord, who is visiting her mother at Plymouth, spent a couple of days this week with her sister, Mabelle Felt, at the Owen House. Mr. Isaminger, who was formerly telephone lineman in this village has recently secured the position of manager of the Onaway-Alpena Telephone office at Gaylord, and has moved from Alpena to that city.
Claude Morrisset, who has been occupying the house owned by C. R. Talbot, and known as the greenhouse residence, has moved into the upper rooms at Mrs. Osmus' house. Mr. Talbot expects to employ an experienced man to take charge of the greenhouses—news which will be welcomed by Farmington people, as the greenhouse accommodations have been greatly missed during the past season.

REV. JAMES PRIESTLEY, MINISTER.
Last Thursday afternoon a number of ladies met at the parsonage and organized an auxiliary of the Woman's Home Missionary society. Mrs. S. O. Hadd, of Plymouth, was the organizing officer. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Henry Pauline; 1st vice, Mrs. J. S. Priestley; 2nd vice, Mrs. Charles Collins; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Lottie McArthur; recording secretary, Miss Mary Lee; treasurer, Mrs. M. Truscott.
Sunday evening last a congregation taxing the capacity of the church to the full, greatly enjoyed the singing of the double male quartette from the Fourteenth Avenue Methodist church. It was the expressed wish of all present that they come again.

Sunday morning the pastor will preach on the theme, "Burden Bearing and Burden Sharing." This is a presentation of one of Paul's great Christian paradoxes. You should hear this sermon; you will enjoy it.
Everyone will find a welcome at the Sunday school session Sunday morning. It is Missionary Sunday and the pastor will give an account of the recent state convention held at Holland.

You should come early Sunday evening, if you want a good seat. The pastor will preach on the subject, "Judas Iscariot—A study of a degenerate." We will also have some good music at this service.
Baptist Church.
Church at 10:30 a. m. Sunday school 11:30 a. m., and evening service at 7, instead of 7:30. Rev. Saulter preaching.
A "Get together or social meeting" will be held in the Baptist church parlors Tuesday evening, December 5th. A program is being prepared; also a nice lunch, and a general good time is expected—one in which all those who are in any way interested in the progress of the Baptist church will be welcome. Things are moving along in a splendid manner. God is certainly blessing our society, both spiritually and materially. Come and have a pleasant evening.
Another delightful meeting of the Dorcas society was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. L. Habermeil. The devotional service was led by Mrs. Haugh, the president. Singing and prayer, followed by the lesson taken from different scripture verses, read and explained in a very plain manner. The extra time the ladies were employed in the knotting of a couple of comfortable, and a most happy and congenial time was enjoyed by all; also a dainty lunch, and those who went in the forenoon had the pleasure of a nice dinner. The meeting adjourned after joining in the singing of that beautiful hymn, "When the Roll is Called up Yonder, I'll Be There," to meet Tuesday December 12th, with Mrs. Armstrong.
The bake sale and bazaar held Saturday was a fine success, over forty-five dollars being made. The store of C. H. Myers was very tastefully decorated in white bunting and pretty colored crepe paper, and the good things in the bake sale line and the pretty and useful articles in the fancy work line were rapidly disposed of. Many thanks to all who so kindly assisted in every way.

STATE OF MICHIGAN IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF OAKLAND, IN CHANCERY.
No. 7625.
Anna R. Graham, Plaintiff, vs. John Hunt, Rachael Tolman, George W. Sessions, Freeman Slow, John Louis Clark, Hiram Emerson and the unknown wife of William Dickinson, or the unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of each and every of them. Defendants.
At a session of circuit court, held at the Court house in the City of Pontiac, on the 25th day of October, 1916.
Present: Honorable George W. Smith, Circuit Judge.
In this case it appearing by the bill of complaint duly sworn to by the said plaintiff, that the defendants above named, or their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns are necessary and proper parties to said suit, and it appearing that the parties named above as defendants, are dead, and that the names, residences and whereabouts of their heirs at law, devisees, legatees and assigns cannot be ascertained by the said plaintiff, after diligent search and inquiry;
On motion of Plaintiff and McGee, attorneys for plaintiff, it is ordered that the appearance of John Hunt, Rachael Tolman, George W. Sessions, Freeman Slow, John Louis Clark, Hiram Emerson and the unknown wife of William Dickinson, or the unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of each and every of them, be entered in this cause within three months from the date hereof, and that in case of their appearance, or the appearance of any of them, that they cause their pleadings to be filed and served, according to the rules and practice of this court, and that in default said bill be entered as confessed by the said defendants, who shall fail to comply with the requirements of this order.
It is further ordered, that within twenty days the plaintiff cause a copy of this order to be published in the Farmington Enterprise, a newspaper published and circulating in said county, and that said publication be continued therein once in each week for six successive weeks.
GEORGE W. SMITH, Circuit Judge.
MAUDE E. MIDGLEY, Deputy Clerk.
