REV. JAMES PRIESTLEY, MINISTER.

Though a stormy day last Sunday there were good congregations at each service. The decorations were admired by all who were present.We wish to thank all who made it possible to have the more than forty new hymns for use at these services.Next Sunday is the last day of 1916; it will be most appropriate to spend the day in worship. The pastor's morning message will be a most helpful one. There will be a story for the children entitled, "How the Robin's Breast became Red." We expect to see you Sunday morning.Sunday school session Sunday morning at the close of the service.Be there and help boost the Sunday school.You should not miss the very last service of the year, held Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. The pastor will preach on the subject, "Life's Imperishable Record." This sermon, based on the following texts "What I have Written I Have Written," John 19:22, and "He Closed the Book," Luke 4:20, contains an impressive message.The Thursday evening prayer meetings are most helpful. The topic for Thursday, January 4th, will be, "Prayer, and the Reign of Law." Start the year right by being at prayer meeting.Universalist ChurchThe last meeting of the Ladies Union held at the home of Mrs.
George Hendryx was very enjoyable, and a goodly number were in attendance. The program of Bible study proved very interesting and instructive to the ladies. At this meeting the ladies filled over two dozen Christmas bags with candy, nuts and popcorn for children of the members and friends of the society. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sarah Chamberlain Thursday, January 14, 1917. The ladies are requested to bring Bibles.Baptist Church,Morning service at 11 a. m., Subject, "A Bible Photograph."Evening service at 7 p. m., Subject, "The Last Message."Salem EvangelicalRev. A. C. Stange will preach in the Clarenceville German church next Sunday morning at 10:30 sun time.Card of Thanks.I wish to thank my many friends and neighbors for their kindness shown me, and gifts given me, during my recent illness and stay in the hospital.

The Enterprise is $1.00 per year.

From All Over.Pontiac doctors have added to the cost of being sick in that city by increasing their rates.The story is going the rounds of the county that a certain government inspector found 190 carloads of coal in the Plymouth yards billed as "shelled corn."Orla Benjamin, of Wallied Lake, received a bad cut in his leg, when his trousers caught on a set screw of a clover huller on which he was working, and pulled the member into the working parts of the machine.Mrs. Mary Dewey Ely has been granted permission to take an appeal to the circuit court on the disallowance of a claim against the Charles Dewey estate for $822.70 for services rendered her father, Charles Dewey, including money loaned him. Pelton & McGee are the attorneys for Mrs. Ely.Barium & Bailey's circus, has been rented for three days by the Overland automobile company at Toledo, and for three days will be absolutely free, even to the favors bestowed by the lemonade, popcorn and peanut vendors, to the employees of the company. Last year the company engaged two big league ball teams to play for the annual outing of the employees.There were 3,392 deaths in Michigan during November, besides 273 stillbirths, not included in the above. Tuberculosis still leads the list, with 204. The number of births reported is 6,404, a decrease of 150 from the preceding month. The county of Luce shows the highest death rate, and Wayne county the highest birth rate. There were 18 deaths reported from the Pontiac state hospital.Preliminary preparations have been made for the largest gathering of farmers ever held in this part ofMichigan, when the Cleaners' of the Ann Arbor district hold their Federal Rally at Ann Arbor, on Thursday, January 18, 1917. There will be three sessions, a federation session, to be held in the forenoon, to which all Cleaners are invited to attend, a public session in the afternoon, and a closed session in the evening.Trolley Bowling League Score.
