

Honeymoon Is In Europe

MRS. WILLI HANS SCHWOEBEL
(Gail Suzanne Seelye)

Mr. and Mrs. Willi Hans Schwoebel traveled to Europe for a month-long honeymoon following their recent marriage in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in East Lansing.

Mrs. Schwoebel is the former Gail Suzanne Seelye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Seelye of Whitmore Lake, formerly of Livonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Schwoebel of Heidelberg, Germany, are the bridegroom's parents.

Upon their return from the honeymoon trip, the new-layers are making their home in East Lansing, where the bridegroom is completing work on a doctorate at Michigan State University. He is a graduate of Brigham Young University.

Mrs. Schwoebel is a graduate of MSU and taught school in Australia last year.

For her marriage, she wore a floor-length gown of linen weave with lace trim on the bodice and sleeves.

Her veil fell from a lace headpiece and she carried white roses and carnations.

The bride and her grand-mother, Mrs. Marguerite Seelye, worked together to sew the dress and veil.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Gerald Walker of Houston, was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were another sister, Lori Seelye, and Mrs. David Sanford of Okemos.

Heide Atkinson of Midland, Texas, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

All wore multi-hued floor-length dresses with coral predominating and carried nosegays with coral predominating.

Dale Giddings of Wolverine, Mich., was best man. Jerry Atkinson of Midland, Texas, and Peter Stewart of Houghton Lake were groomsmen and the ushers were Gerald Walker of Houston and Roger Barrus of Seattle.

A reception in the church cultural hall followed the ceremony.

MRS. ALLAN S. REIDER
(Candice Slagle)

Couple Is Wed By Candlelight

Candice K. Slagle, daughter of Mrs. John Slagle of Farmington and the late John Slagle, became the bride of Allan S. Reider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reider of Grand Rapids, during a candlelight ceremony in Temple Emanuel.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother and brother-in-law, Jon Kennedy of Farmington. Rabbi Albert Lewis officiated.

The bride's gown was of ivory silk organza with Venice lace trimming the bodice, skirt and bishop sleeves. Ivory satin ribbon trimmed the gown and picture hat which held her floor length veil. She carried a cascade of roses, stephanotis, baby breath and a white orchid.

Mrs. Jon Kennedy, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert H. Porter of Rockford, Ill., and Rhonda Reider, sister of the bridegroom.

Robert Reider, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Kennedy and Douglas Seiler were ushers.

Mrs. Slagle chose a gown of apricot and Mrs. Reider's gown was of peach.

A reception and dinner followed the ceremony in the social room of the temple.

The couple will make their home in Grand Rapids where the bride is a teacher and the bridegroom is in business with his father. Both are graduates of Grand Valley State College and the bride is a graduate of Farmington High School.

Rites Held In Plymouth

Nancy Lundin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lundin of Ridgewood Avenue, Plymouth, became the bride of Kenneth Koch in a recent ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church of Plymouth.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Art Koch of East Detroit.

Dr. Henry Welch officiated for the double-ring rites.

The bride made her white dotted Swiss wedding gown. She wore a waist-length veil and carried pink carnations and white daisies and mums.

Debi Lundin, the bride's sister and maid of honor, and bridesmaids Carol Stevens and Kathy Koch, wore blue, pink and yellow dotted Swiss dresses and matching picture hats.

Eric Spendak was best man and the ushers were Charles Hedy and Frank Angelo.

After a luncheon reception at Hillside Inn, the new-layers went to northern Michigan for their honeymoon. Both are University of Michigan students, the bride majoring in art and the bridegroom in business.

Shedds Married In St. Aiden

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Shedd are making their home in Plymouth following their recent marriage in St. Aiden Catholic Church in Livonia.

Mrs. Shedd is the former Charlene Cady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard N. Cady of Bell Creek Lane, Livonia. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Russell Shedd of Meadowbrook Road, Redford Township.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an

A-line gown of organza with appliqued lace inserts. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a seed pearl crown.

Jackie Corwin, the bride's sister, was matron of honor. She wore a blue dotted Swiss gown with scooped neckline and carried a nosegay of blue and white carnations.

The bridesmaids were Barb Hayward of Livonia and Marie Bellamere of Taylor. Their gowns were yellow and green dotted Swiss and they carried matching nosegays.

Allen Shedd, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. The ushers were Nelson Cady, brother of the bride, and Tom Oulette of Livonia.

Mrs. Cady wore a mint green chiffon gown and Mrs. Shedd's dress was blue and white pleated chiffon.

Grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Carruthers of Walnut Creek, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Shedd of Kalamazoo, were present for the occasion.

After a reception for 300 guests in Roma Hall, the couple left for a northern Michigan honeymoon.

Both are graduates of Schoolcraft College. The new bride is a second-year student at Providence School of Nursing and her husband is employed by the Ford Motor Co. transmission division in Livonia.

St. Michael Scene Of Rites

St. Michael Catholic Church in Livonia was the setting, where Christine Pelchat and Ramon Cruz exchanged nuptial vows recently.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pelchat of Montana Avenue, Livonia. Mr. and Mrs. Santos Cruz of Brentwood, Calif., are the bridegroom's parents.

Officiating for the evening ceremony were the Rev. Leonard Partensky and Deacon Robert Delbeke. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

She wore a floor-length gown of white summer satin with alencon lace trim. Matching lace fashioned the headpiece that held her cathedral length veil. Her flowers were pink sweetheart roses and white daisies in a colonial bouquet.

Patricia Pelchat was maid of honor for her sister, Karrell Hultquist of Grant, Mich., and Judy Wickham of Livonia. Mrs. Santos Cruz were bridesmaids and Amy Pelchat, a younger sister, was junior bridesmaid.

Their dresses were white with a tiny yellow and orange flower print and they carried yellow daisies.

The bridegroom's attendants were William Krause of Detroit, best man, and Patrick Walker of East Lansing and Raymond Karras of Livonia, ushers.

A reception for 150 guests in the Park Place, Dearborn, followed the ceremony, and the couple went to southern California for their wedding trip.

They are living in Westland.

The bridegroom attended Michigan State University and is employed by the Hearstside.
